COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

LETTER TO FTC RELEASED

The SEC released a letter written by Paul Gonson, its Associate General Counsel, in response to an inquiry from the Federal Trade Commission concerning the relationship between the requirements of the FTC that certain companies file Quarterly Financial Reports with it and the federal securities laws, and rules thereunder, administered by the Commission. The letter states that if companies subject to the jurisdiction of the FTC properly prepare and file the financial data required by 15 U.S.C. 46(b) and (f), and if the Federal Trade Commission prepares and uses such data in accordance with the Federal Trade Act and the rules promulgated thereunder and takes appropriate steps to maintain the confidentiality of such data, then the submission of such data to the FTC, in itself, is not a violation of federal securities laws or rules thereunder.

COURT ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

MARTIN POLLACK SENTENCED

The Washington Regional and Philadelphia Branch Offices announced that on April 4 the Honorable Clarence E. Newcomer, U.S. District Judge sentenced Martin Pollack, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to one year probation during which Pollack was ordered to perform community service without pay. On January 26, 1978, Pollack had pleaded guilty to the second count of a two-count information charging him with filing false federal income tax returns for the years 1971 and 1972. The tax violations related to Pollack's employment in 1971-1972 as a securities salesman at Delphi Capital Corporation. (U.S. v. Pollack, E.D. Pa., Criminal Information No. 78-8). (LR-8463)

HARVEY BIRDMAN, OTHERS PLEAD AND ARE SENTENCED

The Washington Regional and Philadelphia Branch Offices announced that on June 27 the Honorable Clifford S. Green, U.S. District Court Judge, sentenced the remaining defendants who had pleaded guilty or no contest to charges arising out of a manipulation of the common stock of Uni-Shield International Corporation in 1972-73.

On June 27 Judge Green sentenced Harvey Birdman, of Elkins Park, Pennsylvania, president of Uni-Shield, to one year in jail, $100,000 in fines and three years probation. On May 23, Birdman had entered a conditional no contest plea over the Government's objection to all twenty-five counts of an indictment returned September 6, 1977 by a Federal Grand Jury charging him and five others with conspiracy, securities fraud and mail fraud arising out of the Uni-Shield manipulation. Birdman's plea, entered on the day trial was scheduled to begin, is conditional upon the Court of Appeals affirming the District Court's ruling in favor of the Government on the defendant's motion to dismiss the indictment.

William Richman, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a former securities salesman, and also a financial consultant for Uni-Shield in 1972-73, was sentenced by Judge Green, also on June 27, to five years probation, during three years of which he must spend a to be determined number of hours per week in community service without pay. On May 23, Richman had entered a conditional no contest plea, also over the Government's objection, to the September 6, 1977 indictment which charged him with conspiracy and to all eighteen counts of a March 31, 1978 Grand Jury indictment charging him with violating and aiding and abetting violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and the mail fraud statute in connection with the Uni-Shield stock manipulation. Richman's plea was also conditional upon the Court of Appeals affirming Judge Green's denial of the defendant's motion to dismiss.

Arthur Salaman, of Wyncote, Pennsylvania, pleaded guilty on May 23 to a criminal information charging him with a misdemeanor in connection with purchases of Uni-Shield stock made in his name by defendant Harvey Birdman. On May 23, Judge Green fined Salaman $2,500. As a further condition of that plea, the Government moved, and the Court agreed, to dismiss the September 6, 1977 indictment as to Salaman.

Bernard Cronin of Magnolia, Massachusetts, a former securities salesman in Washington D.C., during 1972-73, was sentenced on May 24 by Judge Green to four years probation (to run concurrent with the three years probation sentence imposed on Cronin by Judge Clarence E. Newcomer for his guilty plea to conspiracy and stock manipulation in the manipulation of Magic Marker common stock) for his plea of no contest to one count of securities manipulation. On May 26, the Court dismissed, pursuant to the Government's Motion, the remaining counts of the September 6, 1977 indictment against Cronin. (U.S. v. Birdman, et al., E.D. Pa., Criminal Action No. 77-382; U.S. v. Richman, E.D. Pa., Criminal Action No. 78-70; and U.S. v. Arthur Salaman, E.D. Pa., Criminal Action No. 78-170). (LR-8464)

EIGHTEEN SENTENCED IN MAGIC MARKER STOCK MANIPULATION

The Washington Regional and Philadelphia Branch Offices announced that on May 26 the Honorable Clarence E. Newcomer, U.S. District Court Judge, sentenced fifteen persons who pleaded guilty or no contest and one person found guilty after trial in connection with the indictment of such persons for offenses arising out of the manipulation of the common stock of Magic Marker Corporation in 1971-72. On June 2, Judge Newcomer sentenced two additional defendants who had also previously pleaded guilty.

Jack Silbiger, of Shawnee Mission, Kansas, and a former stock promoter and investor was sentenced to one year in prison and three years probation. Sentenced by Judge Newcomer to three years probation during which time they must perform community service at no compensation were Bernard Cronin of Magnolia, Massachusetts, and Lawrence Richter of Miami, Florida, former securities salesmen; Robert Street of Brooklyn, New York, a former branch manager of a Washington, D.C., brokerage firm; and Gerald Rafferty, also of Brooklyn, New York, a former stock specialist on the National Stock Exchange.

Judge Newcomer sentenced each of the following to three years probation and a $1,000 fine: Albert London of Lincroft, New Jersey, and Stanley Levin of Woodmere, New York, former floor traders for the National Stock Exchange; Jay Teitelbaum of Rockville Centre, New York, and Robert Knoth of North Palm Beach, Florida, both former securities salesmen; Harvey Klebanoff, a former Vice President of the brokerage firm of Delphi Capital Corporation; Burton Dubbin, a corporate officer of Casa Bella Imports, Inc., a publicly traded company; Michael Rekoon of Cranford, New Jersey, Joseph DeLoge of St. Petersburg, Florida, and Joseph Patrick of Glenside, Pennsylvania, former securities traders; Charles Birkholz of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Myron Freeman of Annapolis, Maryland, two of Silbiger's former associates; and John Tees of Cornwells Heights, Pennsylvania, a former margin clerk for Delphi Capital. Sentenced to three years probation and a $5,000 fine was Abraham Salaman, the former President of Delphi Capital. (U.S. v. Yiddy Bloom, et al., E.D. Pa., Criminal Action No. 77-383; E.D. Pa., Criminal Action No. 77-384). (LR-8465)
