ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

CHEMICAL TRUST DEFENDANTS TO DISGORGE $17 MILLION

The Commission announced that on June 6 the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida entered summary judgment against several of the principals of Chemical Trust (Chemical), an alleged vehicle for a Ponzi scheme. The Court permanently enjoined defendants Virgil W. Womack, Clifton Wilkinson, and Lewey L. Cato, III from further violations of the federal securities antifraud and registration provisions and ordered them to jointly and severally disgorge $17 million in ill-gotten gains and to pay $75,000 each in civil penalties. These defendants' assets were frozen and they were ordered to repatriate investors' funds. Without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint, defendant Alvin A. Tang (Tang) earlier consented to permanent injunctive relief and the payment of disgorgement and civil penalties in amounts to be later determined. Relief defendant Prestige Accounting Services, Inc. defaulted to the Commission's complaint, had its assets frozen, and was ordered to repatriate investors' funds.

According to the Commission's complaint, the defendants made material misrepresentations and omissions in connection with the sale of at least $17 million in investment contracts to the investing public. The contracts promised investors returns of between 9.25% to 15% annually, depending upon the amount invested. The complaint further alleges that Chemical represented to investors that their funds would be used to purchase U.S. Treasury notes and distressed properties and that the investment was 100% guaranteed through a security bond issued by U.S. Guarantee. According to the Commission's complaint, Chemical has not purchased any U.S. treasury notes or distressed properties, and investor funds are not secured as promised. Instead, the complaint alleges that the defendants misappropriated millions of dollars in investor monies and expatriated them to offshore bank accounts. The complaint alleges that in a classic Ponzi scheme fashion, Chemical used new investor funds to pay interest to existing investors. The complaint further alleges that the defendants made material misrepresentations and omissions to investors concerning, among other things, the assets of U.S. Guarantee and the background of its principals.

The Commission filed its complaint on January 7, 2000, and obtained a temporary restraining order and asset freeze against all the defendants. On January 13, 2000, the Court entered a preliminary injunction and continued the asset freeze against the defendants. [SEC v. Chemical Trust, et al., Case No. 00-8015-CIV-RYSKAMP, SD Fla.] (LR-16603)
