COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

JACKSON DAY SELECTED AS DEPUTY CHIEF ACCOUNTANT

Securities and Exchange Commission Chief Accountant Lynn Turner today announced the selection of Jackson M. Day to serve as a Deputy Chief Accountant for the Commission. In this capacity, Mr. Day will share responsibilities for the day-to-day operations of the office, including resolution of accounting and auditing practice issues, rulemaking projects, and private sector standard setting efforts. Mr. Day will join the Commission on September 15.

Lynn Turner said, "I am delighted to have Jack join the Office of the Chief Accountant. Given his experience as a partner at an accounting firm and Practice Fellow at the Financial Accounting Standards Board, he brings to the Office an in-depth background that will be of great value to the Commission."

Prior to joining the Commission, Mr. Day was a partner in Ernst & Young's National Office of Professional Practice in New York, where he consulted on complex transactions related to financial instruments, revenue recognition, securitization and Emerging Issues Task Force matters. He also represented Ernst & Young on various industry working groups relating to financial instruments and revenue recognition. Mr. Day began his career at Ernst & Young's St. Louis office in 1986 as an auditor and served in various positions at Ernst & Young throughout his career. He was admitted as a partner in 1999.

From 1997 to 1999, Mr. Day served as a Practice Fellow at the Financial Accounting Standards Board, where he focused on complex and unique accounting issues, worked with senior executives of the Big Five accounting firms, and coordinated with regulators, including the SEC.

Mr. Day, 36, graduated in 1986 from Kansas State University with a B.S. in Business Administration. He is a member of the AICPA and the KSCPA. (Press Rel. 2000-115)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

SEC ORDERS BOSTON SCIENTIFIC TO CEASE AND DESIST FROM FINANCIAL REPORTING, RECORD KEEPING, AND INTERNAL CONTROLS VIOLATIONS

The Commission ordered Boston Scientific Corporation to cease and desist from committing violations of the public company reporting, record keeping and internal controls provisions of the federal securities laws. Boston Scientific consented to an Order of the Commission finding that the company improperly overstated its net income or understated its net losses by more than $75 million in quarterly and annual reports for the periods ended March 31, 1997, through June 30, 1998. In 1997 and 1998, Boston Scientific's wholly-owned subsidiary, Boston Scientific Japan, KK, recorded thousands of false sales collectively totaling more than $75 million. Boston Scientific Japan submitted its false sales and earnings data to Boston Scientific, which then incorporated those figures in its consolidated financial statements that were filed with the Commission. As a result, Boston Scientific materially overstated its net income and/or understated its net losses in its quarterly reports on Forms 10-Q for all of 1997 and the first two quarters of 1998, and in its annual report on Form 10-K for 1997, by amounts ranging from 10% to 46% of net income. In addition, Boston Scientific Japan's internal controls suffered from material weaknesses in that they failed to prevent or detect the false sales activity resulting from management and distributor collusion at Boston Scientific Japan. As a result, Boston Scientific violated the issuer reporting, record keeping and internal controls provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. In February 1999, Boston Scientific restated its financial results for all four quarters of 1997, the year ended 1997, and the first and second quarters of 1998. The Order requires Boston Scientific to cease and desist from committing future violations of the public company reporting, record-keeping and internal controls provisions of the Exchange Act [Sections 13(a), 13(b)(2)(A) and 13(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act and Rules 13a-1, 13a-13 and 12b-20 thereunder]. (Rel. 34-43183, AAE Rel. 1295; File No. 3-10272)

SEC SETTLES FRAUD CHARGES AGAINST STEVEN WERTMAN, ROBERT ORKIN, EDWARD CHARLES WILLIAM DONNER III, AND EARL DAVID

On August 18, the Commission entered settled orders making findings and imposing remedial sanctions against Steven Ira Wertman, Robert Bruce Orkin, Edward Charles William Donner III and Earl Seth David. The Commission previously instituted administrative proceedings against Wertman, Orkin, Donner and David on June 20, 1997 (Securities Act of 1934 Release No. 38751).

In the Orders, the Commission finds that between September 1, 1991 and December 31, 1993, respondents Wertman, Orkin, Donner and David participated in a scheme whereby Orkin caused a now-defunct brokerage firm to sell Teletek, Inc. common stock in return for secret payments which were not disclosed to the firm's customers. Specifically, Wertman and Orkin agreed that the brokerage firm would sell Teletek stock to its customers in exchange for Wertman arranging for secret cash payments to Orkin. The Orders find that Teletek, directly or indirectly, issued seven million shares of its stock to nominees of Wertman. At Wertman's direction, David received and sold Teletek stock in a foreign account and made secret payments to Orkin from the proceeds of sales of the Teletek stock pursuant to Wertman's agreement with Orkin. Orkin and Donner acted as traders for the brokerage firm and acquired Teletek stock pursuant to the arrangement. Orkin then arranged for registered representatives at the brokerage firm to sell Teletek stock to their unsuspecting customers, who were not informed of the arrangements for Orkin to receive secret payments.

Wertman was indicted in U.S. v. Swan, et al., CR-S-96-288 (D. Nev. filed Nov. 6, 1996), and Orkin and Donner were indicted in U.S. v. Cozzolino, et al., CR-S-96-287 (D. Nev. filed Nov. 6, 1996), which were factually related criminal proceedings in the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada. David was not charged. Wertman pled guilty to one count of racketeering and was sentenced to 21 months of incarceration. Donner pled guilty to one count of conspiracy and was sentenced to five months of incarceration. Orkin was convicted of securities fraud and other offenses, and sentenced to a period of 65 months of incarceration and a fine.

In the Orders, the Commission found that respondents Wertman, Orkin, Donner and David willfully violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The Commission also barred Wertman, Orkin, Donner and David from participating in any offering of penny stock, and barred Orkin and Donner from association with any broker or dealer. David was ordered to pay disgorgement and interest in the amount of $10,000 and a civil penalty in the amount of $5,000. Based on their inability to pay, Wertman, Orkin and Donner will not be required to disgorge the undisclosed compensation that they received, nor will civil monetary penalties be assessed against them. Respondents consented to the Orders without admitting or denying the Commission's findings. (Rel. 34-43171; File No. 3-9334).

COURT ORDERS PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AGAINST PHOENIX TELECOM, L.L.C. AND JEROLD CLAWSON, CONTINUES THE RECEIVERSHIP FOR PHOENIX AND CONTINUES THE FREEZE ON ASSETS OF THE DEFENDANTS

The Commission announced that on August 14 Judge Jack T. Camp of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia entered a preliminary injunction against Phoenix Telecom, L.L.C. (Phoenix) and Jerold Benjamin Clawson (Clawson) and continued previously ordered emergency relief against all of the defendants. The Commission did not seek a preliminary injunction against the defendants other than Phoenix and Clawson. However, Judge Camp directed that the receivership for Phoenix would remain in place, that an accounting be provided, and continued an earlier order freezing assets of all of the defendants.

The complaint, filed on August 2, 2000, seeks permanent injunctions against Phoenix, Clawson, and two other individual defendants, Jerry Deland Beacham (Beacham) and H. Ellis Ragland, Jr. (Ragland). The complaint alleges that Phoenix, Clawson, Beacham, and Ragland engaged in fraud in the offer and sale of unregistered securities in the form of investment contracts, and alleges that the defendants promoted a massive fraudulent scheme through the use of insurance agents and over the Internet, in which Phoenix raised more than $74 million from more than 2,000 mostly elderly investors.

The Court found that the scheme was based upon purported investments in customer owned, coin-operated telephones offered and sold in units, involving a telephone, site lease, lease/back agreement and buy/back agreement, that constitute securities, and further concluded that no registration statement was filed with the Commission in connection with these securities. The Court found that although Phoenix was the source of lease payments on the telephones and was the insurer of the investment, investors were not told that Phoenix was losing money, had a negative net worth, and was dependent on revenue from new investors to sustain its operations. The Court also found that a prior securities law injunction and related criminal prosecution against Ragland was not disclosed to investors.

The complaint seeks permanent injunctions against defendants Phoenix, Clawson, Beacham and Ragland to prevent future violations of Sections 5(a), 5(c) and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The complaint also seeks an accounting, disgorgement and prejudgment interest as well as civil penalties from the defendants. [SEC v. Phoenix Telecom, L.L.C., Jerold Benjamin Clawson, Jerry Deland Beacham and H. Ellis Ragland, Jr., Civil Action File No. 1:00-CV-1970-JTC, N.D. Ga.] (LR-16659)
