The Commission yesterday issued a joint release with the Securities Bureau of the Japanese Ministry of Finance. The release reaffirms cooperation between the two, and traces developments between the two markets since May 23, 1986, the date of the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding between the two agencies. (Press Release 89-3)

COMMISSION TO CLOSE JANUARY 16 AND 20

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NASD ACTION AGAINST COSSE' INTERNATIONAL SECURITIES, INC.
AND CHARLES B. COSSE' AFFIRMED

The Commission affirmed sanctions imposed by the NASD on Cosse' International Securities, Inc., a Seattle brokerage firm, and its owner and board chairman, Charles B. Cosse'. The NASD censured respondents and fined them $15,000, jointly and severally.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that respondents attempted to escape liability to certain customers by improper means. Customers who purchased bullion from the firm were led to believe that the firm was taking responsibility for their purchases which were stored out of state to avoid Washington sales taxes. Unknown to the customers, the firm stored their bullion with Phoenix Precious Metals (PPM), an Arizona company from which the firm had purchased the bullion. When respondents learned facts that led them to believe that PPM might not be able to deliver the bullion stored with it, they attempted to shift all responsibility for the bullion to their customers without disclosing the information they had learned about PPM.

The Commission stated, "(Respondents') whole course of conduct amounted to an exercise in deception. As such, it was plainly inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade." (Rel. 34-26424)

NASD ACTION AGAINST CURTIS I. WILSON AFFIRMED

The Commission affirmed sanctions imposed by the NASD on Curtis I. Wilson, of Redmond, Washington, who was associated with a former NASD member firm. The NASD censured Wilson, fined him $15,000, suspended him from association with any NASD member for one year, and required him to requalify as a registered representative.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that, during a six-month period in 1983, Wilson made unsuitable recommendations to a customer, an elderly widow. Wilson disregarded the customer's financial situation and needs by converting her conservative, income-producing portfolio into non-income-producing, speculative securities, a substantial portion of which were purchased on margin. Every stock that Wilson purchased for the customer was either a new issue that his firm was underwriting or a security in which it was making a market.

The Commission also found that Wilson effected unauthorized transactions in the same customer's account while she was out of the country. It further found that, although Wilson knew it was improper, he guaranteed another customer against loss in connection with the customer's purchase of a security on Wilson's recommendation. (Rel. 34-26425)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

TIMOTHY L. SASAK ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on January 3 U.S. District Court Judge Paul G. Rosenblatt entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against Timothy L. Sasak of Paradise Valley, Arizona. On December 28, 1988, the Commission filed a Complaint in the Phoenix federal court against Sasak and Avanti Associates First Mortgage Fund 84 Limited Partnership, a company controlled by Sasak. Avanti is required to file periodic reports with the Commission. Without admitting or denying the Complaint's allegations, Sasak consented to the Final Judgment which permanently enjoins him from violations of the antifraud and the representations to independent auditors provisions of the securities laws as well as from the filing provisions applicable to issuers.

The Complaint alleges that Sasak obtained approximately $674,165 from a kickback scheme that was not disclosed to investors. According to the Complaint, Sasak caused Avanti to include false financial statements in quarterly and annual reports filed with the Commission.

[The Commission acknowledges the substantial assistance provided by the Arizona Corporation Commission, Securities Division, in the investigation of this matter.] (SEC v. Avanti Associates First Mortgage Fund 84 Limited Partnership, et al., USDC DAZ, Civil 88, 2124 PHX PGR). (LR-11961; AAER-214)
