U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

ADOPTION OF REGULATION D AND RELATED AMENDMENTS

The Commission has issued a release announcing the adoption of Regulation D, a series of new rules governing certain offers and sales of securities without registration under the Securities Act of 1933. Regulation D, which will be effective on April 15, 1982, replaces Rules 146, 240, and 242, all of which will be rescinded on June 30, 1982. The Commission's release also announces adoption of Form D, a uniform notice of sales form to be used in offerings under Regulation D and Section 4(6) of the Act, Rule 215, a definition of "accredited investor," and related amendments to Rules 144 and 148. Regulation D is designed to simplify and clarify existing limited offering exemptions, to expand their availability, and to achieve uniformity between federal and state exemptions in order to facilitate capital formation consistent with the protection of investors. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

MARK K. BREWER SUSPENDED

The New York Regional Office announced that the Commission has simultaneously instituted and settled administrative proceedings against Mark K. Brewer, a former registered representative, of Scottsdale, Arizona. The Commission accepted an Offer of Settlement from Brewer in which he neither admits nor denies the Commission's findings.

Based upon the Order for Proceedings and the Offer of Settlement, the Commission found that Brewer wilfully violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder (anti-fraud provisions), in that he omitted to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in connection with the offer and sale of Lilac, Inc., now known as Shalako, Inc., stock to his customers, and purchased and attempted to induce others to purchase the common stock of Lilac, while in possession of material, non-public information concerning Lilac, which he did not disclose to the sellers of said securities. The Commission ordered that Brewer would be suspended from association with any broker or dealer for a period of four months. (Rel. 34-18517)

DONALD & CO., OTHERS CITED

The Commission announced the institution of public administrative proceedings pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the imposition of remedial sanctions against Donald & Co. Securities Inc., Jersey City, New Jersey, a registered broker-dealer, Julius London and Brian Clendenin, both of Palisades Park, New Jersey, Anthony Pontecorvo of Hazlet, New Jersey, and Cosimo Tacopino of Staten Island, New York, all employees of the broker-dealer.

The Commission accepted an offer of settlement submitted by the respondents in anticipation of these proceedings, in which they consented, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, to findings and remedial sanctions. The Commission found that the respondents wilfully violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws between August 1978 and March 1980 by failing to disclose the beneficial interests of officers, directors, principals and associated persons of the firm in offerings underwritten by Donald & Co. The Commission further found that Donald & Co. wilfully violated, and London, Pontecorvo and Clendenin wilfully aided and abetted violations, of the recordkeeping, customer protection and credit extension provisions of the securities laws.

Simultaneous with the institution of these proceedings, the Commission suspended Donald & Co. for 14 days from soliciting new customers and from soliciting purchase orders from existing customers and further suspended Donald & Co. from acting as an underwriter or selling group member in any public offering for a period of 30 days. The Commission suspended London, Pontecorvo and Tacopino from association with any broker-dealer for 30 days. The Commission suspended Clendenin from association with any broker-dealer for 60 days and thereafter for nine months, from such association in a supervisory, managerial or proprietary capacity. (Rel. 34-18521)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

JAMES F. COLEMAN ENJOINED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on February 11 Judge Russell Clark of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Missouri, Western Division, enjoined James F. Coleman, by consent, from violating the antifraud and corporate periodic reporting provisions of the securities laws. The complaint alleged, among other things, that from 1974 through 1976 Coleman caused Coleman American Companies to overstate reported income in quarterly and annual reports; from 1976 through 1978 Coleman caused Coleman American to incorporate those earlier overstatements in its quarterly and annual reports; and, from 1978 to the present Coleman caused Coleman American to not file any quarterly or annual reports with the Commission. (SEC v. James F. Coleman, W.D. Mo., Civil Action No. 82-0090-CV-W-4). (LR-9605)

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on March 1 the Commission filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois naming as defendants Dura-Plex Industries, Inc., American Benefits Development Corporation and James R. McGath. The complaint alleged violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws by the defendants in connection with the offer and sale of Dura-Plex common stock. Simultaneous with the filing of the complaint, the defendants, without admitting or denying any of the substantive allegations of the complaint, each consented to the entry of a final judgment of permanent injunction. A final judgment of permanent injunction was entered against each defendant on March 1 by the Honorable Judge McMillen, U.S. District Judge. (SEC v. Dura-Plex Industries, Inc., et al., N.D. Ill., Civil Action No. 82 C 1264). (LR-9606)
