U.S. SECURITIES
EXCHANGE COMMISSION

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

EXTENSION OF RESCISSION OFFER BY WAINWRIGHT, AUSTIN, STONE & CO.

The Commission, by order dated December 13, 1990, instituted public administrative proceedings under Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Wainwright, Austin, Stone & Co. (Wainwright), a broker-dealer formerly headquartered in Colorado Springs, Colorado. (Rel. 34-28695). That Order for Proceedings was entered based on findings that Wainwright willfully violated Section 15(c) of the Exchange Act and Rule 15c2-6 promulgated thereunder (Cold Call Rule) in connection with sales of designated securities of at least two different issuers. The Commission, by the order, simultaneously instituted the proceeding and accepted Wainwright's offer to settle the case. The order censured Wainwright and required Wainwright to comply with its undertaking to offer rescission of all trades made in violation of the Rule. The Commission subsequently received information that some investors received the rescission offer after the rescission period had expired.

The Commission has accepted Wainwright's offer to amend its original offer to settle this case by issuance of an amended Order. The amended Order requires Wainwright to send a second rescission offer giving investors who were sold securities in violation of the Cold Call Rule an extended time period to consider Wainwright's rescission offer. (Rel. 34-29306)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

ENVIROSURE MANAGEMENT CORPORATION CONSENTS TO INJUNCTION

The Commission announced that on June 20 it filed a Complaint in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia seeking a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction (Final Judgment) against EnviroSURE Management Corporation (EMC) of Niagara Falls, New York. The Commission in its Complaint seeks to compel EMC to file its delinquent reports and to enjoin it from further violations of Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 12b-25, 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder. Simultaneously with the filing of the Commission's Complaint, EMC consented to the entry of a Final Judgment. In its Consent, EMC admitted that it had failed to file nine periodic reports and that it had filed late six periodic reports and three notifications of late filing.
