U.S. SECURITIES
EXCHANGE COMMISSION

AMENDMENTS TO RULE 3a12-8 NOTICED FOR COMMENT

The Commission has noticed for comment a proposal to amend Rule 3a12-8 (17 CFR 240.3a12-8) to designate debt obligations issued by the Republics of Ireland and Italy as "exempted securities" for the purpose of marketing and trading futures contracts on those securities in the United States, and to replace all the references made to the informal names of the countries listed in the Rule with references to their official names. Publication of the notice is expected in the Federal Register during the week of November 18. (Rel. 34-29929; International Series Rel. 341; File S7-32-91)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

ROBERT KURTZ, JR. SANCTIONED

The Commission has issued an Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (Order) pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Robert F. Kurtz, Jr. (Kurtz), formerly employed in the Philadelphia office of Kidder, Peabody & Co., Inc. (Kidder) as a registered representative. The findings and remedial sanctions are in accordance with an Offer of Settlement (Offer) submitted by Kurtz whereby he consented to the Order, without admitting or denying the findings therein.

On the basis of the Order and Kurtz' Offer, the Commission found that during the period from June 1988 through November 1989, Kurtz engaged in a scheme to misappropriate $1,507,815 from two Kidder customer accounts for which he served as account executive. Kurtz forged signatures on checks drawn on the accounts and deposited the checks directly into his personal bank account or into the accounts of other Kidder customers for which Kurtz served as account executive. The Commission also found that Kurtz engaged in a check-kiting scheme to conceal his misappropriation.

On September 23, 1991, the Commission filed an injunctive action against Kurtz based upon similar allegations (LR-12989).

Based on the above findings and Offer, Kurtz was barred from association with any broker, dealer, municipal securities dealer, investment company or investment adviser. (Rel. 34-29917)

SETTLEMENT OFFER OF JAY COX ACCEPTED

The Commission announced the entry of an Order Instituting Public Proceedings, Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions against Jay Kenneth Cox and accepting Cox's Offer of Settlement.

From July 1984 to November 1988 Cox was employed as a registered representative at the Kingsport, Tennessee branch office of J.J.B. Hilliard, W.L. Lyons, Inc. Cox admitted to the Commission's findings that he was convicted in Tennessee state court on 31 felony counts, including grand larceny, forgery and uttering a forged instrument. Cox also admitted to the Commission's findings that on September 30, 1991, a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction was entered by the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee enjoining Cox from future violations of the antifraud provision of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and rule thereunder. The Commission's complaint filed on September 30, 1991, alleges that Cox, during the period from in or about October 1987 through November 1988, effected unauthorized margin loans to a customer account, forged customers' signatures to letters instructing that his brokerage firm issue checks to customers, forged customers' endorsements to checks issued by his firm and deposited checks payable to his customers into his own accounts for his own use and benefit. The Order, effective immediately, bars Cox from association with any broker, dealer, investment company, investment adviser or municipal securities dealer. (Rel. 34-29918)

PROPOSED RULE CHANGE

The National Association of Securities Dealers filed a proposed rule change (SR-NASD-91-19) under Rule 19b-4 to adopt a new Rule of Fair Practice, the Corporate Financing Rule, which replaces in its entirety the current NASD Interpretation of the Board of Governors - Review of Corporate Financing. The NASD is also proposing to codify its practices related to procedures governing requests for review of Corporate Financing Department determinations in new Article XII to the NASD Code of Procedure.
