COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEC NEW 800 NUMBER AVAILABLE TO PUBLIC

Today the Commission initiated its first 800 number toll free information service. The service is part of a broader effort by the Commission to increase accessibility of its information resources for investors and the general public.

By dialing 1-800-SEC-0330, callers access a system based on current telephone technology that explains how to order investor protection brochures, Commission publications, information about the Commission's enforcement program and procedures for filing complaints. The service also tells how to obtain official company filings or to find out if a securities firm or employee has been the subject of disciplinary action.

Other aspects of this Commission initiative include access to Fedworld, a public electronic bulletin board operated by the Department of Commerce. The bulletin board, announced in the October 3rd issue of the Digest, carries current issues of the SEC News Digest and the texts of various informational brochures, investor columns and bulletins, speeches, testimony and selected releases concerning rule making. Anyone with a modem and communications software can connect directly with Fedworld by dialing (703) 321-8020 or via the Internet.

CUSTOMER SERVICE PLANS OF THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

In response to Executive Order 12862 issued as part of the Vice President's National Performance Review, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) developed a customer service plan. The goal of the plan is to enhance investor protection through an improved investor education effort and a redirection of resources to augment the SEC's responsiveness to investor concerns and complaints. The plan submitted to the Vice President of September 8, was modified slightly on October 24. The modified plan is available in the SEC Public Reference Rooms.

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

STEPHEN HOLLOWAY ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on October 13, the Honorable Nancy G. Edmunds, U.S. District Court Judge for the Eastern District of Michigan, permanently enjoined Stephen A. Holloway (Holloway), from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. The Court also ordered Holloway to disgorge $119,195.03 plus prejudgment interest, but waived payment based upon his demonstrated inability to pay. Holloway consented to the entry of the order against him without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the complaint.

According to the complaint, from in or about February 1987 through June 1990, Holloway, while acting as an unregistered broker-dealer, along with associates sold approximately $3,000,000 worth of unregistered promissory notes to numerous investors for investments in entities known as GT&T Limited Partnerships. The complaint further alleges that, in connection with the foregoing activity, Holloway made material misstatements and omissions to investors concerning, among other things, the guaranteed nature of the investments and the use of investors' funds for real estate development ventures. [SEC v. Limmer, Holloway and Poetscheke, Civ. Action No. 93 CV 40299 FL, E.D. MI.] (LR-14302)
