RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

GRANT OF EXEMPTIVE RELIEF FROM CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE TENDER OFFER REGULATIONS

The Commission granted an exemptive order from certain provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) to Global TeleSystems Group, Inc. with regard to a tender offer for the Ordinary Shares and American Depositary Shares of Esprit Telecom Group plc. The order granted relief from certain withdrawal rights provisions of Section 14(d)(5) of the Exchange Act and Rules 14d-7. For further information contact Laurie Green at (202) 942-2920. (Rel. 34-41013; International Series Rel. 1181)

INTERNATIONAL DISCLOSURE HARMONIZATION

The Commission has issued a release soliciting public comment on proposed amendments to Form 20-F to incorporate the International Disclosure Standards recently endorsed by the International Organization of Securities Commissions. Form 20-F is used by foreign private issuers as a registration statement and annual report form under the Securities Act of 1934. The proposed amendments would bring the Commission's non-financial statement disclosure requirements for foreign private issuers more in line with international norms, thereby reducing the burden on issuers seeking to offer or list securities in multiple capital markets. The proposal would not change the financial statement reconciliation requirements for foreign issuers. The proposal includes amendments to the registration statement forms under the Securities Act of 1933 used by foreign private issuers and related rules and forms, which would be triggered by the proposed changes to Form 20-F. The Commission also is proposing to amend the definition of "foreign private issuer" to clarify how foreign issuers should determine their U.S. ownership for purposes of that definition. The public comment period will end 60 days after publication of the release in the Federal Register. For further information, contact: Sandra Folsom Kinsey or Rani Doyle at (202) 942-2990. ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

SEC SUES DONNKENNY, INC. AND FOUR FORMER SENIOR EXECUTIVES AND EMPLOYEES FOR FINANCIAL FRAUD

On February 2, the Commission filed two related enforcement actions: The first, filed in District Court for the District of Columbia, charged four former senior executives and employees of Donnkenny, Inc. (a manufacturer and marketer of women's sportswear and other apparel (with perpetrating a financial fraud at the company and engaging in illegal insider trading. The second was a settled administrative proceeding against the company.

The complaint against the individuals alleged that: Beginning in at least early 1994 and continuing until at least August 1996, Donnkenny's former chief executive officer and chairman, Richard F. Rubin, fraudulently managed the company's reported revenues and earnings. Rubin directed a scheme whereby the company improperly reported revenue both on bogus transactions as well as on sales before they occurred. Assisting Rubin in the scheme were three company employees: Donnkenny's former chief financial officer, Edward T. Creevy, its former controller, Ronald H. Hollandsworth, and former assistant controller, Kymberlee W. Kulis. While aware that the company's publicly reported financial results were materially misstated, Rubin, Creevy, Hollandsworth, and Kulis each also engaged in illegal insider trading by selling Donnkenny securities.

Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, without admitting or denying the complaint's allegations, Kulis agreed to settle the charges against her by consenting to a final judgment. The final judgment will prohibit Kulis from violating or aiding and abetting or causing violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Sections 10(b), 13(a), 13(b)(2)(A), 13(b)(2)(B), and 13(b)(5) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5, 12b-20, 13a-1, 13a-13, and 13b2-1 thereunder. The judgment will also order Kulis to pay $34,576.66, representing disgorgement of her trading profits and losses avoided (plus prejudgment interest thereon) and civil money penalties. [SEC v. Richard F. Rubin, Edward T. Creevy, Ronald H. Hollandsworth, and Kymberlee W. Kulis, Civ. Action No. 99 CV 239 (RCL) (D.D.C.) (Feb. 2, 1999)].

Also simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, the Commission instituted an administrative proceeding against Donnkenny. Without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, Donnkenny consented to an order finding that the company violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act as well as the periodic reporting, books and records, and internal accounting control provisions of the Exchange Act. The order directed Donnkenny to cease and desist from committing or causing any violations or future violations of the following provisions: Section 17(a) of the Securities Act, and Sections 10(b), 13(a), 13(b)(2)(A), and 13(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act and Rules 10b-5, 12b-20, 13a-1, and 13a-13 thereunder. SEC SUES WIFE OF SCHOLASTIC CORPORATION EXECUTIVE AND HER CO-WORKER FOR INSIDER TRADING IN SCHOLASTIC CORPORATION OPTIONS

The Commission announced today that it filed an insider trading action against two real estate brokers, Donna Yun, of Longwood, Florida and Jerry Burch, of Heathrow, Florida. The complaint alleges that on February 18, 1997, Yun learned from her husband, an officer of Scholastic Corporation (Scholastic), material non-public information about an unanticipated earnings announcement by Scholastic: that it expected to post a loss of 20-30 cents per share for the quarter ending February 28, 1997. Her husband also told her that he expected the share price of Scholastic common stock, which was trading at approximately $65, to decline to $55 per share as a result of the announcement. Yun's husband told her this information with the understanding that she would hold it in confidence. The complaint alleges further that at a cocktail party that evening Yun disclosed to Burch, a co-worker, her husband's prediction regarding a decline in Scholastic's stock price and the reasons for that prediction. On February 19 and 20, 1997, Burch purchased 130 Scholastic put option contracts, including 10 February series contracts which expired on February 21, 1997, and 90 put option contracts with a strike price of $60 or below.

Scholastic's announcement concerning its loss for the quarter was released publicly after the close of trading on February 20, 1997. That day, Scholastic common stock closed before the announcement at $61.50 per share. The following day, the price of Scholastic common stock dropped approximately 40 per cent, and closed at $36.75 per share. On February 21, Burch exercised his put options for a net profit of approximately $269,000.

The Commission is seeking permanent injunctions against Donna Yun and Jerry Burch from violations of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, as well as disgorgement of Jerry Burch's illegal profits, prejudgment interest and civil penalties.

The Commission acknowledges the assistance of the Chicago Board Options Exchange in investigating this matter. [SEC v. Donna Yun and Jerry Burch, Civil Action No. 99-CIV-117-22A, USDC, MD Fla., Orlando Division] (LR-16052)
