

AmeriCorps National MENTORING PROGRAM

Mentor Expectations

The mentor provides the mentee with professional support and continuous assistance for six months to one year.

The mentor builds a positive relationship with the mentee.

The mentor respects confidentiality.

The mentor models, coaches, observes, and provides feedback.

The mentor provides advice and assistance that contribute to the growth of the mentee on specific or general issues, as appropriate.

The mentor ensures that the mentee knows where to get the latest information and resources to do her/his job effectively.

The mentor remains accessible by providing open lines of communication through both structured (twice a month phone and/or email communication, or other arrangement as set by mentor and mentee) and unstructured contact time.

The mentor shares best practices and experiences with the mentee.
