CONSUMER & GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON
PAUL D. S. EDWARDS'S PETITION FOR AN EXPEDITED CLARIFICATION
AND DECLARATORY RULING CONCERNING THE TELEPHONE
CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT (TCPA) RULES

CG Docket No. 02-278

Reply Comments Due: 25 Days After Publication in the Federal Register

On January 12, 2009, Paul D. S. Edwards (Edwards) filed a petition for an expedited clarification and declaratory ruling regarding the Commission's rules under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA).¹ Specifically, Edwards asks the Commission to clarify whether a creditor may place autodialed or prerecorded message calls to a telephone number associated with wireless service that was provided to the creditor initially as a telephone number associated with landline service.² Section 64.1200(a)(1)(iii) of the Commission's rules prohibits the initiation of "any telephone call (other than a call made for emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) using an automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice, to any telephone number assigned to . . . cellular telephone service. . . ."³ The Commission concluded that such calls to wireless numbers that are provided by the called party to a creditor in connection with an existing debt are permissible as calls made with the "prior express consent" of the called party.⁴

² Petition at 3 (citing Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 and Request of ACA International for Clarification and Declaratory Ruling, CG Docket No. 02-278, Declaratory Ruling, 23 FCC Rcd 559 (2008) (ACA International)).

³ 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(1)(iii). The Commission's rules on autodialed and prerecorded message calls to cell phone numbers incorporated the language of the TCPA virtually verbatim. See also 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii) ("It shall be unlawful for any person within the United States or any person outside the United States if the recipient is within the United States—to make any call (other than a call made for emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) using any automatic telephone dialing system or an artificial or prerecorded voice—to any telephone number assigned to a paging service, cellular telephone service, specialized mobile radio service, or other radio common carrier service, or any service for which the called party is charged for the call[.]")

⁴ See ACA International, 23 FCC Rcd 559.

Edwards asserts that the Commission's ruling permits debt collection calls to a wireless telephone number only when the consumer, in that instance, provides the wireless telephone number to the creditor.⁵ Edwards contends that when the creditor is initially provided a "landline" telephone number, and subsequently that "landline" number is ported to a cellular telephone, an established business relationship, "prior express consent," or other exemption from section 227(b)(1)(A)(iii) of the TCPA is not created.⁶ Edwards concludes that compliance with the TCPA requires that the consumer must have provided the creditor a telephone number assigned to a wireless service in order for calls to the wireless telephone number to be permissible.⁷ Accordingly, we seek comment on Edwards's petition.

Pursuant to Sections 1.415 and 1.419 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.415, 1.419, interested parties may file comments on Edwards's Petition on or before the 15th day after publication of this Public Notice in the Federal Register, and reply comments may be filed on or before the 25th day after publication of this Public Notice in the Federal Register.
