NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE AND ORDER

Adopted: January 19, 2009

Released: January 19, 2009

By the Chief, Enforcement Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture and Order (“NAL and Order”), we find that Harron Communications, L.P.’s cable system serving Amory, Mississippi (“Harron”) apparently willfully violated Section 76.1603(b) of the Commission's Rules (“Rules”).¹ Specifically, Harron failed to provide the requisite thirty (30) days advance written notice to its customers, before implementing a change in rates, programming services or channel positions as required under the Rules. We conclude, pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (“Act”),² that Harron is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500). We also order Harron, within ninety (90) days of this NAL and Order, to issue refunds to the customers affected by the change in rates, programming services or channel position as explained more fully below.

II. BACKGROUND

2. On July 19, 2008, the Commission received a complaint from a customer in Amory, Mississippi asserting that Metro Cast Communications³ had transferred services from complainant’s cable service.⁴ According to the complainant, this change was made without any notice.

III. DISCUSSION

A. Harron Apparently Violated Section 76.1603(b) By Failing To Provide Proper Notice to its Customers.

³ MetroCast Communications” and “MetroCast Cablevision” cable systems and subsidiaries of Harron Communications, L.P.

⁴ See 08-C00036840-1.

3. Based on the record before us, we find that Harron apparently willfully violated Section 76.1603(b) by failing to notify its customers before implementing a change in rates, programming services or channel positions as required under the Rules.

4. Section 76.1603(b) of the Rules provides, in relevant part, as follows:

Customers will be notified of any changes in rates, programming services or channel positions as soon as possible in writing. Notice must be given to subscribers a minimum of thirty (30) days in advance of such changes if the change is within the control of the cable operator. In addition, the cable operator shall notify subscribers 30 days in advance of any significant changes in the other information required by § 76.1602.⁵

5. We find that the migration of each channel constitutes a change in rates, programming services or channel positions under the Rules. We also find that the migration was a change within the control of Harron because we are unaware of external forces that would have required Harron to make such a change, particularly without giving 30 days notice. In our Letter of Inquiry issued to Harron on October 30, 2008,⁶ we asked for a range of information related to the migration of channels, including evidence that consumers were provided with the notice required under our rules. Unfortunately, Harron failed to produce any evidence on this point in response to our request, including any evidence that the requisite notice was provided of the migration that is the subject of this NAL and Order.

6. Therefore, for the reasons stated above, we find that Harron apparently violated Section 76.1603(b) by failing to provide its customers at least thirty (30) days notice of a change in rates, programming services or channel positions.

B. Forfeiture Calculation

7. Under Section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act, any person who is determined by the Commission to have willfully or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.⁷ To impose such a forfeiture penalty, the Commission must issue a notice of apparent liability and the person against whom such notice has been issued must have an opportunity to show, in writing, why no such forfeiture penalty should be imposed.⁸ The Commission will then issue a forfeiture if it finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the person has violated the Act or a Commission rule.⁹ Based on the analysis set forth below, we conclude that Harron is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for its willful violation of Section 76.1603(b) of the Rules.

⁵ 47 C.F.R. § 76.1603(b).

⁶ Letter from Kathryn S. Berthot, Chief, Spectrum Enforcement Division, Enforcement Bureau, Federal Communications Commission to Ryan F. Pearson, Executive Vice President and General Counsel, Harron Entertainment Company (Oct. 30, 2008) (“LOI”).

⁷ 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(B); 47 C.F.R. § 1.80(a)(1).

⁸ 47 U.S.C. § 503(b); 47 C.F.R. § 1.80(f).

⁹ See, e.g., SBC Communications, Inc., Forfeiture Order, 17 FCC Rcd 7589, 7591 (2002).

8. Under Section 503(b)(2)(A) and Section 1.80(b)(1) of the Commission's Rules,¹⁰ we may assess a cable television operator a forfeiture of up to $32,000 for each violation or each day of a continuing violation, up to a statutory maximum forfeiture of $325,000 for any single continuing violation. In exercising such authority, we are required to take into account "the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require."¹¹

9. The Commission's *Forfeiture Policy Statement*¹² and Section 1.80 of the Rules do not establish a specific base forfeiture for violation of Section 76.1603's notice requirements.¹³ Based on the totality of circumstances here and the Commission's past precedent, we find that $7,500 is an appropriate base forfeiture for failure to notify its customers of Harron's change in service.¹⁴ Accordingly, we conclude that Harron is apparently liable for a total forfeiture of $7,500 for its willful violation of Section 76.1603(b) of the Rules.

C. Harron Must Issue Refunds To Customers Harmed By Its Failure To Provide Notice.

10. Harron's change in rates, programming services or channel positions without the required notice has harmed its customers who purchased services based on the reasonable assumption that Harron would not be moving significant portions of programming from standard service tiers to digital cable tiers without providing the notice required under our Rules. In effect, Harron's movement of programming to a digital tier without any reduction in subscriber fees has substantially diminished the value of the programming complainant receives. The complainant must now pay the same monthly rate for cable service even though complainant can view fewer channels.

¹⁰ 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(2)(A), 47 C.F.R. § 1.80(b)(1). The Commission has repeatedly amended Section 1.80(b)(1) of the Rules to increase the maximum forfeiture amounts, in accordance with the inflation adjustment requirements contained in the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, 28 U.S.C. § 2461. Most recently, the Commission raised the maximum forfeitures applicable to cable operators, broadcast licensees, and applicants for such authority from $32,500 to $37,500 for a single violation, and from $325,000 to $375,000 for a continuing violation. See Inflation Adjustment of Maximum Forfeiture Penalties, 73 Fed. Reg. 44663, 44664 (July 31, 2008). The new forfeiture limits will take effect September 2, 2008 and do not apply to this case.

¹¹ 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(2)(E). See also 47 C.F.R. § 1.80(b)(4), Note to paragraph (b)(4): Section II. Adjustment Criteria for Section 503 Forfeitures.

¹² See The Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement and Amendment of Section 1.80 of the Rules to Incorporate the Forfeiture Guidelines, Report and Order, 12 FCC Rcd 17087, 17115 (1997), recon. denied, 15 FCC Rcd 303 (1999) ("Forfeiture Policy Statement").

11. Thus, we order Harron, within ninety (90) days of this NAL and Order, to issue refunds to all affected customers who did not receive the required notice as of the date of the programming change. Specifically, Harron must provide refunds as follows:

Harron must refund the customer's subscriber fees of all affected customers who did not receive the required notice based on the diminished value of their service following the movement of programming without proper notice by $0.10 per channel moved per month and reduce complainant's rates on a going-forward basis accordingly until the notice required under our rules has been provided.¹⁵

12. In addition, we order Harron to submit to the Bureau within 30 days of the issuance of refunds a report in the form of a letter advising the Bureau that such refunds have been paid and that affected subscribers' fees have been reduced as directed.

IV. ORDERING CLAUSES

13. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. S: 503(b)(5), and section 1.80 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. S: 1.80, and under the authority delegated by sections 0.111 and 0.311 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. S: 0.111, 0.311, Harron is NOTIFIED of its APPARENT LIABILITY FOR A FORFEITURE in the amount of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500.00) for willful violation of Section 76.1603(b) of the Rules.

14. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 1.80 of the Rules, within thirty days of the release date of this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture and Order, Harron SHALL PAY the full amount of the proposed forfeiture or SHALL FILE a written statement seeking reduction or cancellation of the proposed forfeiture.

15. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to sections 1, 4(i), 4(j), 601, and 629 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended 47 U.S.C. §§ 151, 154(i), 154(j), 521, 549, Harron must take the steps set forth in paragraphs 10, 11, and 12 of this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture and Order.

16. Payment of the forfeiture must be made by check or similar instrument, payable to the order of the Federal Communications Commission. The payment must include the NAL/Account Number and FRN Number referenced above. Payment by check or money order may be mailed to Federal Communications Commission, P.O. Box 979088, St. Louis, MO 63197-9000. Payment by overnight mail may be sent to U.S. Bank – Government Lockbox #979088, SL-MO-C2-GL, 1005 Convention Plaza, St. Louis, MO 63101. Payment by wire transfer may be made to ABA Number 021030004, receiving bank TREAS/NYC, and account number 27000001. For payment by credit card, an FCC Form 159 (Remittance Advice) must be submitted. When completing the FCC Form 159, enter the NAL/Account number in block number 23A (call sign/other ID), and enter the letters "FORF" in block number 24A (payment type code). Requests for full payment under an installment plan should be sent to: Chief Financial Officer -- Financial Operations, 445 12th Street, S.W., Room 1-A625, Washington,

¹⁵ Thus, for example, if Harron migrated a channel and did not provide proper notice for nine months, it must refund $0.90 to each affected customer. $0.10 is our best estimate of the relevant license fee per channel. We note that Harron did not provide actual per channel license fees as required by the LOI. The Bureau will reconsider the appropriate license fee per channel should Harron submit a petition for reconsideration that includes evidence that the license fees of the affected channels are lower than $0.10 per month.

D.C. 20554. Please contact the Financial Operations Group Help Desk at 1-877-480-3201 or Email: ARINQUIRIES@fcc.gov with any questions regarding payment procedures. Harron will also send electronic notification on the date said payment is made to Kathy.Berthot@fcc.gov and to JoAnnLucanik@fcc.gov.

17. The response, if any, must be mailed to the Office of the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20554, ATTN: Enforcement Bureau – Spectrum Enforcement Division, and must include the NAL/Acct. No. referenced in the caption.

18. The Commission will not consider reducing or canceling a forfeiture in response to a claim of inability to pay unless the petitioner submits: (1) federal tax returns for the most recent three-year period; (2) financial statements prepared according to generally accepted accounting practices; or (3) some other reliable and objective documentation that accurately reflects the petitioner's current financial status. Any claim of inability to pay must specifically identify the basis for the claim by reference to the financial documentation submitted.

19. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a copy of this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture and Order shall be sent by first class mail and certified mail return receipt requested to that a copy of this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture and Order shall be sent by first class mail and certified mail return receipt requested to Ryan F.
