ABSTRACT

Appointed by the President, the fifteen Indian and Alaska Native members of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education (NACIE) are charged by law to advise the Congress and the Commissioner of Education in a number of areas concerning the administration of programs in which Indian children and adults participate and to submit an Annual Report to the Congress. In the Sixth Annual Report seven recommendations are brought to the attention of Congress. The first three deal with MACIE's concern with the changeover to the newly-created Department of Education. Notif recommends that (1) the organizational structure of the Office of Indian Education remain a distinct and separate organizational entity within the Department of Education, (2) that Indian Educational Programs contained in Title IV of P.L. 92-318 remain separate and distinct programs, and (3) that NACIE remain in tact and continue its advisory duties. Recommendations also are made for funding tribally controlled Community colleges and for a study to investigate the utilization of a telecommunication Satellite for Indian education related programs. The final recommendations deal with NACIE itself; that appointments be done within three months after a position is vacated and that the annual report be submitted on September 30 of each year rather than March 31. Included is a state-by-state accounting of the distribution of Title IV funding and the Indian Fellowships for FY 1978 managed by the Office of Indian Education.

NATIONAL ADUJSORY COUNCIL ON MIDIAN EDUCATION

June 1979

To the Congress of the United States

The National Advisory Council on Indian Education is pleased to submit this Sixth Apnual Report to the Congress of the United States in compliance with our Congressional mandate, P.L. 92-318, as amended by P.L. 95-561.

The calendar year 1978 may be viewed as one of rapid change. This is reflected both by actions taken by the United States Congress and those taken by the National Advisory Council on Indian Education during the past year. With regard to the Congress, we have witnessed the creation of a new Cabinet Department of Education. The establishment of this new Department affects directly all Indian educational programs located formerly within the Office of Indian Education at the United States Office of Education, since these programs will be transferred to the Department of Education. The National Advisory Council on Indian Education has gone through a series of changes during the year, including the retirement of several members of our Council, and the addition of new Council members. Also, the former Executive Director of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education, Mr. Stuart A. Tonemah, has retired from that position, and a new Executive Director was selected for his replacement,

*Though there have been many changes, either proposed or enacted, the National Advisory Council on Indian Education would like to continue to transmit to the United States Congress their strong desire that Indian education programs continue to meet the special educational and cultural needs of Indian children throughout the United States. This intent is reflected in the theme of the Sixth Annual Report to the Congress of the United States, which is, Indian Education is Sui Generis: Of its own kind. In developing this theme for the Sixth Annual Report, the Annual Report Committee of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education would like to once again call the attention of the Congress to our sincere belief that the education of Indian children requires a special effort over and above that provided non-Indian children who attend schools within the United States. These complex special educational and cultural needs require an organizational structure, and educational programs within the new Cabinet Department of Education which will ensure that these needs are met. Our one overriding goal is to ensure the provision of a "Quality Education" for all-Indian children within the United States.

Respectfully submitted,

Viel A. Peteren

Ms. VIOLA G. PETERSON NACIE Chairperson

The National Advisory Council on Indian Education has had the honor of submitting five Annual Reports to the United States. Congress during its relatively brief lifespan. Throughout its history, the organization has received praise and criticism, support and derision, reflective of the paradoxes found in life itself. Still, the organization has survived in an often hostile environment, and in 1979, remains the only governmental organization specifically charged with the responsibility of advising the Congress and the Secretary of Education regarding educational programs which affect the lives of Indian children and adults throughout the United States. The expectations held by many for our organization are substantial, as is the scope of our Congressional mandate in P.L. 92-318. We have not been able to meet all of the expectations which the Congress, the Administration and the Indian community have held for us. We have tried. In past years, three distinguished Indian educators have served in the position of Executive Director, and one has served in the position of Acting Executive Director of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education: Mr. Dwight Billedeaux, Blackfeet; Mr. Lincoln White, Mohawk; Mr. Stuart, Tonemah, Kiowa/Comanche; and Mr. Dorrance Steele, Sioux. Only now do I appreciate fully their commitment and effort expended on behalf of Indian children. Only now do I have the perspective and the confidence to state that our organization should survive. In the past six months, our Council has worked closely with all the National Indian Organizations in a concerted effort to protect Indian educational programs located within the Bureau of Indian Affairs. In the coming year, our Council will confront our primary responsibility to the Congress, namely, the review of the administration of Indian educational programs located in the Office of Indian Education, which will be transferred in the near future to the new Cabinet Department of Education. This is not a small task, especially with the scarce resources with which we have been provided. However, we are determined to fulfill our duties, both to the Congress, and to Indian children. We may not accomplish all of our goals; we may not meet all of the expectations held for us throughout the United States; but, we will continue to try.

INTRODUCTION

The National Advisory Council on Indian Education was created by the Congress by P.L. 92-318, on June 23, 1972, and is composed of fifteen members who are Indians and Alaskan Natives appointed by the President of the United States. It is charged by law to advise the Congress and the Commissioner of Education in several areas concerning the administration of programs in which Indian children and adults participate, and to submit an Annual Report to the Congress. Now that the Cabinet Department of Education has been created, the Council must report to the new Secretary of Education, rather the former Commissioner of Education at the old Office of Education. It is important to understand that the National Advisory Council on Indian Education is not a policy making board, but serves in an advisory capacity only. The reader is directed to Appendix A for a complete list of the functions of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education. On November 1, 1978, via P.I., 95-561, the Congress extended the life of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education through October 1, 1983. The following Sixth Annual Report to the Congress of the United States is comprised of three parts. Part One contains our final recommendations to The United States Congress and the Secretary of Education. It should be noted that this report contains Council recommendations approved during calendar year 1978. The first three recommendations, however, are current and reflect Council advice relative to the recently established Cabinet Department of Education. Part Two contains a State by State Distribution of all funds obligated by Title IV of P.L. 92-318 during fiscal year 1978. Part Three contains a discussion of the major activities of our Council during the past year.

PART I

Final Recommendations to the United States Congress and the Secretary of Education

There has been much discourse regarding the provision of education to Indian children throughout the United States. During the 'debate it has been implied by some that "Indian Education" should strive toward the goal of equality with non-Indian education in the United States. However, it is our contention that the goal of equality of educational opportunity, taken alone, is insufficient to meet the special educational and cultural needs of our Indian children. We feel that it is extremely important that the Government at all levels—the President, the Congress, the new Secretary of Education, Federal Educational Program Administrators, School administrators, and Teachers—join us in our sincere belief that Indian Education is "Sui Generis": Of Its Own Kind.

Our recommendations are based on seven concerns which the Council selected to bring to the attention of the Congress and the Secretary of Education. Clearly, the first two concerns are related directly to our philosophy of Indian Education stated above:

1. A concern that the ourrent organizational structure of the Office of Indian Education remain a distinct and separate organizational entity within the newly created Department of Education.

The National Advisory Council on Indian Education asserts strongly that the education of Indian children throughout the United States is of its own kind. In making this statement, we do not imply that we are seeking a quality of education for our children which is better than that offered to non-Indian children throughout the United States, but we want to insure that the special educational and cultural needs of Indian children receive an adequate response from those agencies of the Federal Government which are charged with the responsibility for the delivery of such services. The newly created Department of Education will contain the Office of Indian Education programs now located within the Office of Education, at the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. Our Council feels strongly that it is a responsibility of the Congress and the Secretary of Education to insure that the new organizational structure within the Department of Education, charged with the responsibility of educating Indian children throughout the United States, remain a distinct and separate entity responsive to the special educational and cultural needs of Indian children, and that its administrator report directly to the new Secretary of Education.

The National Advisory Council on Indian Education will stand ready to work with the Congress of the United States, the Secretary of Education, and the Office of Management and Budget, to provide our advice regarding the most effective type of organizational structure needed to address the special educational and cultural needs of Indian children.

We recommend to the Congress of the United States and the Secretary of Education that the organizational structure of the Office of Indian Education remain a distinct and separate organizational entity within the new Department of Education, and that its administrator report directly to the Secretary of Education, in order that it may implement effectively Indian educational programs under Title*IV of P.L. 92—318, as amended by P.L. 95–561, designed to meet the special educational and cultural needs of Indian children and adults throughout the United States.

2: A concern that the Indian Educational Programs contained in Title IV of P.L. 92-318, as amended by P.L. 95-561, remain separate and distinct programs designed to meet the special educational and cultural needs of Indian children within the new Department of Education.

The National Advisory Council on Indian Education looks forward to the opportunity to work closely with the Congress of the United States, the Secretary of Education, and other governmental organizations to insure that all programs administered under Title IV of the Indian Education Act, presently managed by the Office of Indian Education, be transferred intact to the new Department of Education. We agree fully with the following Senate Committee Report, which established the Office of Indian Education, that separate and distinct Indian educational programs, managed by professional Indian educators, will continue to provide the most effective administration of Indian educational programs:

"This Committee believes that in the past the Office of Education has not recognized that priorities needed in Indian education and has failed to keep adequate data in this field. Furthermore, evaluation of programs funded by OE and dissemination of program information has likewise proved inadequate. It is believed that the centralization of authority and responsibility in a new Bureau will go towards remedying these past inadequacies."

(S.REP. NO. 346, 92nd Cong., 1st Sess. 102(1971))

We recommend to the Congress of the United States and the Secretary of Education that all Indian educational programs contained in Title IV of P.L. 92-318, be transferred intact to the Department of Education and that they remain separate and distinct programs designed to meet the special educational and cultural needs of Indian children and adults throughout the United States.

3. A concern that the National Advisory Council on Indian Education continue to advise both the Congress and the new Secretary of Education as mandated by P.L. 92–318, Part D, Section 442.

The National Advisory Council on Indian Education must continue to advise both the Congress and the new Secretary of Education regarding the improvement of Federal education programs in which Indian children and adults participate, or from which they can benefit, including all additional functions of the Council identified in P.L. 92–318, Part D, Section 442. Now that the new Department of Education has been created, the National Advisory Council on Indian Education must advise the new Secretary of Education, rather than the Commissioner of Education, as reflected in the new organizational chart of the Department of Education.

We recommend to the Congress of the United States that the National Advisory Council on Indian Education remain intact, and continue to advise both the Congress and the new Secretary of Education as mandated by P.L. 92-318, Part D, Section 442.

4. A concern that Federal funds be made available to implement fully P.L. 95-471, the Tribally Controlled Community College Assistance Act of 1978.

This past year the Congress of the United States approved P.L. 95-471, the "Tribally Controlled Community College Assistance Act of 1978." The Act authorized to be appropriated the amount of $25,000,000 for each of the fiscal years beginning October 1, 1979, and October 1, 1980, and $30,000,000 for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1981, to aid in the post-secondary education of Indian students by providing grants to the general operating funds of the institutions to defray the expense of activities related to education programs for Indian students. In addition, the Act authorized to be appropriated $3,200,000 for each of the three fiscal years for the provision of technical assistance to the Tribally Controlled Community-Colleges.

The National Advisory Council on Indian Education supports strongly the full appropriation of funds identified in the Act, which are vitally important to service the post-secondary educational needs of Indian students residing on or adjacent to the Indian reservations.

The Act also provided for a survey of existing and planned physical facilities of Tribally Controlled Community Colleges. The results of a detailed survey and study of the academic facilities needs of Tribally Controlled Community Colleges will be reported to the Congress by November 1, 1979.

Our Council feels strongly that Indian human resources are our most important resource. The Tribally Controlled Community Colleges offer significant promise toward the development of Indian human resources to meet the many problems and challenges faced by all Indian tribes in the coming decade. It is imperative that, the Congress assist the Tribally Controlled Community Colleges by the provision of funds crucial to their development.

We recommend to the Congress of the United States that full funding be made available immediately for the implementation of P.L. 95-471, The Tribally Controlled Community Colleges Act of 1978.

A concern that communications systems available to Indian and Alaskan Natives in the area of education are inadequate at present and that a study of satellite communications for use by our communities is needed.

At the meeting of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education in Billings, Montana, on May 20,. 1978, the Council voted unanimously to endorse the concept of a Joint American Indian Telecommunications Satellite Demonstration Project as presented by Mr. Sam WindyBoy, an Educational Specialist at the Little Big Horn Community Gollege, serving the Crow Indian Tribe at Crow Agency, Montana. The National Advisory Council on Indian Education supports strongly the development of the concept of an American Indian Telecommunications Satellite for utilization in a field of Indian education. The American Indian Telecommunications Satellite Demonstration Project, managed by Mr. WindyBoy, was highly successful evidence that telecommunications are the wave of the future. We therefore support the funding of a study of the feasibility of establishing a permanent American Indian Telecommunications Satellite Project for utilization in the field of Indian education. We recommend to the Congress of the United States and the Secretary of Education that a study of the utilization of a Telecommunications Satellite for Indian education related programs be undertaken at the earliest possible time.

6. A concern that all future appointments to the National Advisory Council on Indian Education be made within three months following a Council vacancy.

The functioning of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education has been hampered by late appointments of new Council members to our Council in replacement of retiring members of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education. At least two problems are generated by the lack of timely appointments, including, (1) the full NACIE Council is forced to conduct business with less than the full Council membership; and (2) the individual appointment term of each Council member may be reduced by six months or more by an appointment. which occurs many months into their actual term of office. In order to remedy these two problems it is recommended highly that the Secretary of Education act to insure newly appointed Council members receive their appointments within three months after a Council vacancy occurs. This will greatly improve the organizational functioning of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education by insuring that a full complement of Council members are present at all future Council meetings.

We recommend to the Secretary of Education that all future appointees to the National Advisory Council on Indian Education be appointed within three months after the time that a Council member position has been vacated, in order to insure the effective functioning of the full Council, and that the individual Council members term of office may be maximized.

7. 'A concern that the National Advisory Council on Indian Education report to Congress on September 30th of each year regarding its activities rather than March 31st.

The National Advisory Council on Indian Education has been required by the Congress to submit its Annual Report not later than March 31st of each year with regard to activities conducted during the previous calendar year (SEE: Appendix B). However, since our Council follows the fiscal year calendar for all other purposes, it is our feeling that the Annual Report should be based upon the preceding fiscal year. This would improve the value of the Annual Report to the Congress by making it a more current document.

We recommend to the Congress of the United States that the Annual Report of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education reflect activities of our Council conducted during the previous fiscal year, and that the Report be submitted to the Congress of the United States not later than September 30th of each year.

In Part II, which follows, a State by State Distribution of funds obligated by Title IV, Parts A, A (Non-LEA), B, C, and the Indian Fellowship Program during FY 1978, is provided for the purpose of identifying the amount of funds received by each State:

PART II

A State by State Distribution

Title IV Funding

Parts A, A (Non-LEA), B, C, and
the Indian Fellowships
Fiscal Year 1978

The following sections include a State by State Distribution of Funds to Title IV Grantees in Parts A, A (Non-LEA), B, C, and the Indian Fellowships for Fiscal Year 1978, managed by the Office of Indian Education, within the U.S. Office of Education. All data identified below are based upon the records of the Que of Indian Education at the U.S. Office of Education, and represent approximate estimates only. Below, five tables are presented for the purpose of demonstrating where the funds for each particular Part of Title IV were allocated, and the percentage of that allocation of the total amount distributed. It is also very important to note the différence between the amount of funds entitled or the amount of funds requested, and the amount actually granted: It will be obvious that in each case the total entitlement or request far exceeded the monies available in Fiscal Year 1978. Now, we will turn to a discussion of the Title IV-Part A program.

A. TITLE IV-PART A FUNDING IN FY 1978: THE LOCAL EDUCATIONAL AGENCIES

First, it is appropriate that we describe briefly the Part Approgram. Generally, it is a grant entitlement program to Local Educational Agencies (LEA's), comprised of both public and tribal schools. The amount of grant award is determined by the total number of Indian students enrolled. The reader is directed to Appendix B, which contains the Act itself.

Table 1, on the following page, represents a State by State Distribution of Title IV-Part A funding for FY 1978. The "Amount Entitled" to each State was compiled from the list of those 1136 school districts who both applied and were entitled to Part A funds. Those Local Educational Agencies who did not apply, but who were eligible, were not included in this column. If all 2992 eligible applicants had applied, the full entitlement would have amounted to approximately, $623,990,287.12, rather than the $454,962,136.43, as identified in column two. As indicated in column three, "Amount Granted," the total Title IV allocation was in the amount of $35,250,448.43. In column four, "% of Total," we find that five States received 58.14% of the total, or $20,498,868.72:

The remaining forty-five States received 41.86% of the funds totalling $14,751,579.71.

B. TITLE IV-PART A FUNDING IN FY 1978: INDIAN CONTROLLED SCHOOLS (NON-LEA's)

It is important that a distinction be made between the funds awarded to the public schools and other local educational agencies, and the Indian controlled schools, known also as the Non-LEA's. One significant difference is that these grants are awarded on a competitive basis, rather than as a direct entitlement:

Table 2, on the following page, represents a State by State Distribution of Title IV-Part A funds awarded to the Indian Controlled Schools (Non-LEA's), in FY 1978. In column two, it is seen that 39 proposals were submitted, with a total request in the amount of $6,213,245.00. As indicated in column three, 28 proposals were funded last year. The total amount of funds obligated were $3,455,063.00, as shown in column four. In column five, "% of Total," we find that five states received 71.98% of the total, or, $2,487,101.00:

C. TITLE IV-PART B FUNDING IN FY 1978

Again, it is appropriate that we describe briefly the Part B program. Generally, it is a discretionary grant program to State and Local Educational Agencies, Federally supported elementary and secondary schools for Indian children, and to Indian tribes, organizations, and institutions to support planning, pilot, and demonstration projects designed to improve educational opportunities for Indian children. The grants are awarded on a competitive basis following a thorough review by several Indian review panels. The reader is directed to Appendix B, each contains Part B of the Act itself.

Table 3, on the following page, represents a State by State Distribution of Title IV-Part B funding for FY 1978. In column one, it is seen that 368 proposals were submitted, with a total request for funds in the amount of $54,850,003.00, as identified in column two. In FY 1978, 74 proposals were funded for a total of $13,079,096.00, as identified in column five. In column six, "% of Total," one finds that five States received 54.91% of the funds for a total of $7,183,294.00:

D. TITLE IV-PART C FUNDING IN FY 1978

The Part C programs consist of discretionary grants awarded on a competitive basis to State and Local Educational Agencies, and to Indian tribes, organizations, and institutions to provide education for Indian adults. The reader is directed to Appendix B, which contains Part C of the Act itself.

Table 4, on the following page, represents a State by State Distribution of Title IV-Part G funding for FY 1978. In column one, it is seen that 155 proposals were submitted, with a total request for funds in the amount of $24,186,896.00, as identified in column two. In FY 1978, 44 proposals were funded for a total of $4,410,188.00, as identified in column five. In column six, "% of Total," one finds that five States received 55.15% of the funds for a total of $2,432,642.00:

E. TITLE IV-INDIAN FELLOWSHIPS FUNDING IN FY 1978

The Indian Fellowship Program was authorized by the Amendments of 1974 to P.L. 92–318, the Indian Education Act. The program was created by the Congress for the purpose of preparing Indians for professions in which they traditionally have been underrepresented. The five areas in which fellowships were available in FY 1978 included: (1) Business (or a related field); (2) Engineering; (3) Forestry (or a related field); (4) Law; and (5) Medicine (or a related field). The reader is directed to Appendix C, which contains the Indian Fellowship Amendment.

Activities

National Advisory Council
on Indian Education:
Full Council Meetings,
Committee Meetings,
and On-Site Visitations

- Washington, D.C.
 Billings, Montana
 Washington, D.C.
 Denver, Colorado,

- 5. Tulsa, Oklahoma

April 7-9, 1978 May 19-21, 1978 August 24-26, 1978 September 15-17, 1978 November 30-December 2, 1978

Our Council attempts to provide all Title IV grantees an opportunity for participation and input into the educational policies which affect directly the lives of Indian children. In this regard, the Council schedules Council meetings in association with other National Indian Conferences held throughout the United States in order that a larger population of Indian people will be available for our Council meeting. Indian community input is additionally collected through field hearings hosted by our standing committees, and on-site visitations, by each of our fifteen Council members.

During the calendar year 1978, the National Advisory Council on Indian Education held five full Council meetings. The first meeting of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education was held in Washington, D.C. on April 7–9, 1978, and was closed for the purpose of our annual review of discretionary grant awards under Parts B and C of Title IV of the Indian Education Act as required by our Congressional mandate in P.L. 92–318.

The second Council meeting was held on May 19–21, 1978, at the Student Union of Eastern Montana College, located in Billings, Montana. It is significant to note the large number of special presentations made by Indian educators from throughout the United States, as well as a high number of Indian guests present.

The third Council meeting was held on August 24–26, 1978, in Washington, D.C. The business meeting which ensued saw the creation and acceptance of three standing committees, including: (1) an Executive Committee; (2) a Legislative, Rules, and Regulations Committee; and, (3) a Technical, Research, and Evaluation Committee. In addition, three task forces were created: (1) a Proposal Review Task Force; (2) an Annual Report Task Force; and, (3) a Government Inter-Agency Study Task Force (see: Appendix D). At this meeting, four new Council members were also sworn-in.

The fourth Full Council meeting was held September 15–17, 1978, in Denver, Colorado. Following the reports of all the standing committees, there was a full discussion of the criteria for the selection of a new Executive Director for the National Advisory Council on Indian Education. At this time a temporary Executive Director's Search Committee was also established.

The fifth and final full Council meeting of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education was held on November 30, 1978—December 2, 1978, in Tulsa and Muskogee, Oklahoma. A large number of Indian guests, numbering nearly one hundred, were present at this Council meeting. Also in attendance were the following guests: Mr. Alan Lovesee, House Advisory Study Group on Indian Education; Mr. Vic Miller, Member of the President's Reorganization Project; Dr. Gerald Gipp, Deputy Commissioner, Office of Indian Education; Dr. Gabe Paxton, BIA, Muskogee Area Office; Mr. Sam Homan, Oklahoma State Department of Education; and, Dr. Dean Chavers, President, Bacone College. The primary activity at this Council meeting was the selection of the new Executive Director of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education. Therefore, part of the meeting was closed to the public for the purpose of conducting personal interviews with the finalists.

Two Full Committee meetings were held during the calendar year, including: (1) a meeting of the Government Inter-Agency Committee of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education on January 6-7, 1978, at our central office in Washington, D.C.; and, (2) a meeting of the Executive Director's Search Committee on November 10-11, 1978, in Denver, Colorado. This meeting was closed to the public in order to review applications for the position of the Executive Director of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education.

In addition, there were a number of on-site visits conducted by members of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education at various locations throughout the country, many of which were at the personal expense of the individual Council member.

The number of Full Council Meetings, Committee Meetings, and On-site Visitations which occur each year are directly related to our yearly budget appropriation. The Council has tried to continue and increase the tradition of Indian community participation by holding these three types of meetings in the field. However, our Council has been constrained financially in fulfilling its Congressional mandate due to a declining budget. In this regard, it is appropriate that we recall the fiscal history of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education from 1974 through 1978. Below is a summarization of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education funding level for the past five years.

Year		· Budget
FY 1974		$282.800.00
FY 1975		$225,000.00
FY 1976		$280,000,00
FY 1977		$100,000.00
FY 1978		$150,000.00

The negative effects of the declining budget upon the functioning of our Council include a reduction in staff from an authorized level of four persons to two. Obviously, the total number of full Council Meetings, Committee Meetings, and On-sité Visitations have been severely limited due to our declining budget. Overall, it is our observation that the organizational effectiveness of our Council has been severely constrained due to an absence of adequate funds necessary to complete our Congressional mandate.

In Fiscal Year 1977, it may be significant to recall that the National Advisory Council on Indian Education received "high marks" in a memorandum from the Annual Comprehensive Review of Advisory Committees made by the President, the Office of Management and Budget, and the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (See: Appendix E).

It would certainly seem fair to assume that following this highly complimentary review, sufficient funds would be made available for the National Advisory Council on Indian Education to adequately implement the mandate of the Congress. Unfortunately, in FY 1978, our Council was awarded approximately 64% of our first appropriation awarded in FY 1974, our initial year of operation. Surely, our costs have not remained at a 1974 level, and most would agree that the inflationary spiral has further reduced our small budget. Our Council would very much appreciate the opportunity to spend our limited energies in pursuit of a "Quality Education" for Indian and Alaskan Native children throughout the United States, rather than to constantly concern ourselves with a request for additional funds. We hope that the Congress will act to remedy this serious problem.

Annual Report Task Force Patricia McGee (Yavapai) Minerva White (Mohawk) Fred Bigjim (Eskimo) Paul Platero (Navajo). In March of 1977, the President, Office of Management and Budget, and the Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare issued a memorandum and instructions concerning the annual comprehensive review of advisory committees.

"The President instructed that all committees were to be recommended for continuation only if a compelling need could be demonstrated, if the committee conducted its business openly, and if a balanced membership on the committee were in fact the case. OMB's Circular A-63 further instructed that the evaluation of each committee must determine whether the committee was carrying out its functions, whether the functions could be revised, whether it could be merged with other groups, or lastly, whether the committee should be terminated. In addition, the review this year offered the citizenry opportunity to comment on the future of each committee according to the established criteria. Unlike many of HEW's advisory committees, OE's committees do not by law review grant applications. The single exception is the National Advisory Council on Indian . , Education."

The following is an extract of the OE's evaluation of the National Advisory Council on Indian Education. The Department recommended that the National Advisory Council on Indian Education be continued unchanged and stated:

"The National Advisory Council on Indian Education (Tab N) is unique among OE's groups, in that it is the only grant-reviewing committee, making recommendations to the Deputy Commissioner for Indian Education, who is the final awarding official. The Council also has an unusual legislated responsibility to select the slate of candidates for the position of Deputy Commissioner for Indian Education, from which the Commissioner makes a selection. Another unique characteristic of the Council is that it is entirely composed of a minority population—Indians—as required by law. The members of the council represent tribes from across the entire, country, including Alaska, urban and rural Indians, reservation and nonreservation Indians. Public participation in the Council meetings is outstanding, since the Council normally reserves up to one full day of its meetings for public presentations. Following the practice of varying its meeting locations in all geographic areas with significant Indian populations, opportunities otherwise not available have been afforded to Indian community members to give their views on education for Indian children and adults.

"The recommendations of the Council have reflected the needs and desires of local Indian communities in education. Their recommendations have been incorporated into our regulations, program priorities, budget requests and the general administration of the Indian Education Act.

"In view of the special historical relationship between the Indian tribes and the Federal Government and in accordance with the proposed Bureau-related structure and the established criteria, I recommend that the National Advisory Council on Indian Education be continued."

The review of advisory councils and recommendations from the OE were forwarded to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare and its recommendation concurred with the OE to continue the National Advisory Council on Indian Education intact. The Department of Health, Education, and Welfare's recommendation is as follows:

"Likewise, the National Advisory Council on Indian Education is unique among OE's groups, in that it is, the only grant-reviewing committee, making recommendations to the Deputy Commissioner for Indian Education, who is the final awarding official. The Council also has an unusual legislated responsibility to select the slate of candidates for the position of Deputy Commissioner for Indian Education, from which the Commissioner makes a selection. Another unique characteristic of the Council is that it is required by law. The members of the council represent tribes from across the entire country, including Alaska, urban and rural Indians, reservation and nonreservation Indians."
