

Randy K. Ferrell

Mr. Ferrell began his career in banking in 1972 with NationsBank and its predecessors, now Bank of America. He served in a series of positions culminating as Senior Vice President/District Executive Officer of large corporate accounts headquartered in Northern Virginia. In 1994, he joined The Fauquier Bank in Warrenton, Virginia, where he is currently President and CEO and serves as a director of the bank and of its parent company, Fauquier Bankshares, Inc., entities with combined assets of over $500 million. Mr. Ferrell is a former director of the Virginia Bankers Association. He currently serves on the VBA Benefits Corporation Board, the VBA Government Relations Committee, and the VBA-affiliated Bankers Insurance Board. At present, he is as a member of the American Bankers Association's Community Bankers Council. Mr. Ferrell is active in civic and community committees and clubs in Fauquier County and the Town of Warrenton.