

RICHARD H. MURRAY

Richard H. Murray is Managing Director and Chief Claims Strategist of Swiss Re, in New York and Zürich.

Mr. Murray is currently on the Supervisory Board of the Centre for the Study of Financial Innovation; on the Advisory Board of Oxford Analytica; on the Advisory Board of the Northeast Business Law Center; a Member of the Commission on the U.S. Capital Markets in the 21st Century, all organized by the U.S. Chambers of Commerce. He is a member of the US Treasury Committee on the Auditing Profession and Chairman of the Center for Capital Markets Competitiveness. Member of Lloyd's (London), 1989–1994; the British Insurance Association (London), 1989–1994; the Risk and Insurance Management Society (U.S.), 1985-1989; Director, Executive Committee and Lecturer at the Institute of Management Development (Lausanne, Switzerland), 1984-1993; and, a Member of APEP, the Institute of International Insurance. Mr. Murray received his education at Harvard University, 1958 and Harvard Law School, 1961, respectively.

Previously he served as the Global Director of Legal and Regulatory Affairs for Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu and as General Counsel of Deloitte Consulting from 1994-2002; Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Minet Professional Services in London from 1989–1994; Executive Director of Touche Ross International in New York from 1986–1989; General Counsel of Touche Ross from 1973–1986; and, Partner and Head of the Litigation Department of Oppenheimer Law Firm in St. Paul/Minneapolis from 1961–1973.

Mr. Murray writes and speaks frequently on matters involving legal liability, professional responsibility, corporate governance and the information requirements of the capital markets.