

The FCC and EPA Joins Forces to Educate Consumers on DTV Issues

The Federal Communications Commission and the Environmental Protection Agency are taking steps to provide information to consumers about the upcoming digital television transition.

A two-page fact sheet developed by the two agencies, available at <http://www.fcc.gov/cgb/consumerfacts/dtvrecycle.html>, emphasizes that no one will have to replace an analog set and outlines opportunities for recycling for those who want to replace their sets.
