

Moving Forward to Further HNR Efforts

- CDC remains committed to HIV prevention community planning – Community voices are essential!!
- CDC is launching several new prevention program and capacity building announcements and a revised community planning guidance within the next 1 – 2 years.
- Newly revised CDC guidelines will be released, e.g., partner services, as well as counseling and testing in non-clinical settings.

