SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION INSTITUTES
ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST FIVE COMPANIES FOR FAILURE TO MAKE REQUIRED PERIODIC FILINGS

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission today issued two separate public administrative proceedings against a total of five companies to determine whether the registration of each class of their securities should be revoked or suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months for failure to file required periodic reports:

In the Matter of China Continental, Inc. and Xcelera, Inc., Administrative Proceeding File No. 3-12438

In this proceeding the Commission instituted administrative proceedings against the following issuers

- China Continental, Inc. (CHCL)
- Xcelera, Inc. (XLACF)

In this Order, the Division of Enforcement alleges that the two issuers are delinquent in their required periodic filings with the Commission. The Division of Enforcement also alleges that the common stock of each of these issuers was quoted on the Pink Sheets as of August 21, 2006.

In the Matter of Cycomm International, Inc., H. Quotient, Inc., and Management Technologies, Inc., Administrative Proceeding File No. 3-12439

In this proceeding the Commission instituted administrative proceedings against the following issuers

- Cycomm International, Inc. (CYII)
- H. Quotient, Inc. (HQNT)
- Management Technologies, Inc. (MTCI)

In this Order, the Division of Enforcement alleges that the three issuers are delinquent in their required periodic filings with the Commission. The Division of Enforcement also alleges that the common stock of each of these issuers was quoted on the Pink Sheets as of August 21, 2006.

In each of these proceedings, instituted pursuant to Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) Section 12(j), a hearing will be scheduled before an Administrative Law Judge. At each hearing, the judge will hear evidence from the Division and the respondents to determine whether the allegations of the Division contained in the Order, which the Division alleges constitute failures to comply with Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder, are true. The judge in each proceeding will then determine whether the registrations pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 of the securities of the respondents in the respective orders should be revoked, or in the alternative, suspended for a period not exceeding twelve months. The Commission ordered that the Administrative Law Judge in each proceeding issue an initial decision not later than 120 days from the date of service of the order instituting proceedings.
