

Sharon Maneki, President
National Federation of the Blind of Maryland
5843 Blue Sky Street
Elkridge, MD 21075
phone: (410)-379-6130
email: maneki@concentric.net

The proposed rule on audio description for television programs is unnecessary. My husband and I are both blind. We have been listening to television for more than 40 years. We do not have trouble understanding plots or following shows. If the FCC wishes to do something constructive for blind persons, please issue a rule requiring the announcement of emergency weather information, phone numbers, sports scores, and other information that is written on the bottom of the screen. Thank you for considering my views.