

Dear FCC,

As a blind American, I fully support the FCC proposed rules for descriptive video under Docket No.99-339. Descriptive Video should be made as widely available as possible, and any regulations that the Fcc can implement to bring this about is good for the blind people of this country to insure better access to television.

Sincerely,
Cheryl Cumings