Successful Magnet High Schools

Innovations In Education

Successful Magnet High Schools profiles magnet high schools across the country that are demonstrating innovative approaches to offering rigorous academic programs. These magnet high schools are successfully preparing students for college and the workforce, offering a culture of high-quality teaching, providing rigorous academic programs, promoting equity, forging partnerships, and modeling innovation in their communities.

This is one of a series of innovation guides produced by the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Innovation and Improvement, all available as free downloads at http://www.ed.gov/aout/pubs/intro/innovations.html.

Featured Schools

Francisco Bravo Medical Magnet High School
Los Angeles, California

G.W. Carver Magnet High School for Engineering, Applied Technology, and the Arts
Houston, Texas

Chattanooga School for the Arts and Sciences
Hamilton County, Tennessee

Design and Architecture Senior High School
Miami, Florida

Galileo Magnet High School
Danville, Virginia

Metropolitan Learning Center
Bloomfield, Connecticut

Northeast Magnet High School
Wichita, Kansas

Booker T. Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts
Dallas, Texas

To order your free copy (while supplies last), contact EDPubs: online at www.edpubs.org; toll-free at 1-877-4-ED-PUBS; or by mail at EDPubs, P.O. Box 1398, Jessup, MD 20794-1398. When ordering online, specify order number ED004444P or enter the publication's name in the EDPubs "Keyword/Title" search box.

The Office of Innovation and Improvement is the entrepreneurial arm of the U.S. Department of Education, making strategic investments in innovative educational practices through two dozen discretionary grant programs and coordinating the supplemental educational services provisions of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act as amended by No Child Left Behind. For more information about OII's grants, services, and publications, go to http://www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/oii/index.html.