Bangor Woman Indicted for Identity Theft, Wire Fraud and Social Security Fraud

Bangor, Maine: United States Attorney Paula D. Silsby announced that the federal grand jury has returned the following indictment:

Mary L. Landry, 43, of Bangor, was indicted on multiple counts of Wire Fraud, Fraud in Connection with Access Devices, Aggravated Identity Theft and Social Security Fraud.

The indictment charged that Landry applied for and obtained credit cards using the social security number and date of birth of another, a Rear Admiral of the U.S. Coast Guard, and that Landry used one of those credit cards to make purchases.

If convicted of the Wire Fraud charges Landry faces a sentence of up to 20 years in prison and a fine of not more than $250,000. If convicted of the Fraud in Connection with Access Devices charges, she faces a sentence of up to 10 years in prison and a fine of not more than $250,000. If convicted of Aggravated Identity Theft, she faces a two year mandatory minimum term of imprisonment. If convicted of the Social Security Fraud charges, she face a sentence of up to five years in prison and a fine of not more than $250,000.

Landry was arrested earlier today.

United States Attorney Silsby stressed that Landry is presumed innocent and that the indictment is not evidence of guilt. United States Attorney Silsby praised the investigation conducted by the United States Coast Guard Investigative Service and the Social Security Administration Officer of the Inspector General.
