Guatemalan Sentenced on Immigration Charges

Bangor, Maine: United States Attorney Paula D. Silsby announced that Angel Mario Guzman-Reyes, 23, of Guatemala, was sentenced on December 1, 2008, in U.S. District Court in Bangor, Maine, for Use of False Identification Documents, to 87 days imprisonment and 2 years supervised release. After his release from federal custody, Guzman-Reyes has been ordered to be transferred to officials with Immigration and Customs Enforcement for deportation proceedings. Guzman-Reyes pleaded guilty on September 16, 2008.

Court records reveal that in September 2008, Guzman-Reyes was arrested for being in the United States illegally. Guzman-Reyes entered the United States without inspection in August 2005 in California. Guzman-Reyes claimed to have been working in Easton, Maine, and had used a false social security card and a false Permanent Resident Card to obtain employment.

United States Attorney Silsby praised the investigation conducted by the United States Border Patrol and the Maine State Police.
