Scheme to Defraud

11. Beginning at a time unknown to the grand jury, but including from in and around July 2005, and continuing until at least November 28, 2006, in the Eastern District of Missouri, MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD, the defendants herein, devised and participated in a scheme and artifice to defraud and to obtain money, funds, credits, assets, or other property from mortgage lenders by means of material false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises in connection with the sales and purchases of residential real estate property located in the Eastern District of Missouri.

12. In general, the scheme involved investors recruited by MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD to purchase real estate primarily located in the City of Sikeston, Missouri. The owners of the real estate would sell their real estate for a price that approximated its fair market value to investors recruited by and known to MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD. However, the investors paid prices for the real estate that were significantly greater than the actual selling price received by sellers. The investors would purchase the real estate at a fraudulently and overvalued price by obtaining loans to purchase the property.

13. As part of the scheme, defendants would obtain an appraisal that was a false and fraudulent appraisal, which significantly overvalued the property for the purpose of defendants personally obtaining inflated loan proceeds despite having no interest in the conveyed real estate. The real estate served as collateral for repayment of the loans obtained to fund the purchase of the real estate by the borrowers/investors.

14. As part of the scheme, MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD made false and fraudulent representations including: (a) that the property was of the value represented in the loan application and appraisals, when in truth and in fact the value of the property had been falsely and fraudulent inflated and overvalued for the purpose of obtaining loan proceeds; and (b) that the investors had provided the funds for the down payment and closing costs, when in truth and in fact, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD had provided those funds.

15. In order for lenders to fund loans brokered by Century Mortgage, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD, and others acting on their behalf, would provide mortgage loan applications, appraisals and supporting documents for review by prospective lenders located outside Missouri, including Long Beach Mortgage and Argent Mortgage.

16. Century Mortgage, Freedom Title, Residential Title, Long Beach Mortgage, Washington Mutual, and Argent Mortgage would routinely exchange these documents associated with the real estate transactions through interstate facsimile transmissions and private interstate carriers.

17. In many cases, purchasers of real estate secured by loans brokered by Century Mortgage as part of the scheme did not provide closing costs or down payments to acquire the real estate. Defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD, and others acting on their behalf, would provide the borrower/investor with the funds for the down payment and closing costs. This would be accomplished by causing funds to be deposited into the borrower/investor's account or by purchasing a cashier's check in the name of the borrower/investor. By falsely and fraudulently making it appear that the borrower/investor would provide cash at closing or had made his or her own down payment, Defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD created the appearance of a qualified and secured mortgage. Had the mortgage lenders been aware of the fraud in the loan application, or down payment, they would not have funded the mortgages for the purchase of the real estate by the borrowers/investors.

18. Defendant MCBRIDE represented to borrowers/investors that the residential real estate to be acquired would be good investment properties, that the rents would pay the mortgage, that the properties could be acquired with "no money down," and that properties could be sold, sometimes in approximately a year, at a profit. As part of the scheme, Defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD also paid monies to borrowers/investors as an inducement and additional incentive for them to purchase residential real estate funded by loans brokered through Century Mortgage.

19. Defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD obtained inflated appraisals for the real estate properties to be transferred in order to justify the purchase price which greatly exceeded the sales price received by the sellers of the properties.

20. The actual sales price received by the sellers of the properties sold as part of the scheme and purchased by borrowers/investors approximated the fair market value of the real estate.

Conspiracy

21. Beginning at a time unknown to the grand jury, but including from in and around July 2005, and continuing until at least November 28, 2006, in the Eastern District of Missouri,

RUSSELL TODD MCBRIDE

the defendants herein, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, did knowingly, voluntarily, and intentionally combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with each other to commit an offense against the United States, to wit, to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud and to obtain money, funds, credits, assets, or other properties from Long Beach Mortgage, Argent Mortgage and other mortgage lenders, and to retain the money obtained, by means of material false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, and by the concealment of material facts and in the execution of the said scheme to commit offenses against the United States, in connection with purchases and sales of residential real estate property, and to commit mail fraud and wire fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1341 and 1343.

Purpose of the Conspiracy

22. An object of the conspiracy was to obtain money through fraudulent real estate transactions. In general, the conspiracy involved the defendants obtaining false and fraudulent appraisals for real estate located in Scott County, Missouri, the sale of which was brokered and facilitated by actions of defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD, and overvaluing the real estate property for the purpose of obtaining inflated loan proceeds for the personal benefit of MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD.

Manner and Means

23. As part of the conspiracy, MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD made and caused to be made numerous false and fraudulent representations, including: (a) that the investors had provided funds for the down payment, when in truth and in fact defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD had provided those funds; and (b) that the property was of the value represented in the loan application, when in truth and in fact the real estate had been falsely and fraudulently inflated and overvalued for the purpose of obtaining inflated loan proceeds.

24. In order for lenders to fund loans brokered by Century Mortgage, defendants would provide mortgage loan applications, appraisals and supporting documents for review by prospective lenders located outside the Eastern District of Missouri.

25. Century Mortgage, Freedom Title, Residential Title, Long Beach Mortgage, Washington Mutual, and Argent Mortgage would routinely exchange these documents through interstate facsimile transmissions and private interstate carriers.

26. It was further part of the conspiracy that defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD submitted and caused to be submitted to mortgage loan companies the materially false, fraudulent, and misleading loan applications, appraisals, and other documents in order to induce mortgage loan companies to approve the applications and lend funds to the borrower/investors.

27. It was further part of the conspiracy that, in reliance on the said materially false, fraudulent, and misleading representations and omissions contained in the loan applications, appraisals, and other documents, Long Beach Mortgage, Argent Mortgage, and other mortgage loan companies approved the loans as new purchase loans.

28. It was further part of the conspiracy that the defendant co-conspirators caused mortgage loan companies to send the loan proceeds by wire transfers in interstate commerce.

29. It was further part of the conspiracy that the defendant co-conspirators obtained personal financial benefit as a result of the scheme, including loan proceeds, fees, commissions, kickbacks, and other benefits, by directing purchasers at times and directing the closing agents at times to pay co-conspirators MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD substantial amounts of the mortgage loan proceeds by checks or wire transfers into their personal bank accounts or other bank accounts controlled by them.

Overt Acts

In furtherance of and to effect the objectives of the conspiracy and to accomplish its purposes and objectives, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD committed and caused to be committed the following overt acts, among others, in Sikeston, Scott County, Missouri, and in the County of St. Louis, Missouri, all in the Eastern District of Missouri, and elsewhere:

811 Agnes Property

30. In or about April of 2006, the exact date being unknown to the Grand Jury, Defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD encouraged, arranged for, and facilitated J.S. purchasing residential real estate located at 811 Agnes Street in Sikeston, Scott County, Missouri.

31. Defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD facilitated and assisted J.S. purchasing the 811 Agnes property for approximately $54,000, when the actual selling price received by Sellers M.L.S. and R.N.S. was $15,000.

32. As part of the scheme, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD prepared and caused to be prepared a Contract for the Sale of Real Estate for J.S.'s purchase of the real estate located at 811 Agnes in Sikeston, Scott County, Missouri, which was for a stated purchase price of $54,000.00 and which contained the purported signatures of Sellers M.L.S. and R.N.S., which were forged.

33. On or about April 27, 2006, a representative of Century Mortgage prepared and J.S. signed a loan application for a first mortgage in connection with his proposed purchase of 811 Agnes Street in Sikeston, Missouri. In the loan application, there was a false representation that J.S. would occupy the property as his primary residence.

34. In April of 2006, defendant MCBRIDE caused to be sent from Century Mortgage to Freedom Title, the Contract for the Sale of Real Estate for the sale of the real estate located at 811 Agnes Street, Sikeston, Missouri, for the price of $54,000.

35. In April of 2006, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD caused to be sent from Freedom Title in St. Louis, Missouri to Long Beach Mortgage in California a false and fraudulent loan application from J.S., together with supporting documentation that falsely represented that J.S. would occupy the property as his primary residence and with the false representation that the contract sale price was $54,000 when in fact it was $15,000.

36. As part of the scheme, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD arranged for and obtained, and caused to be obtained a false and fraudulent appraisal of the real estate located at 811 Agnes in Sikeston, Scott County, Missouri, falsely and fraudulently indicating that the property was worth $54,000.00.

37. On or about April 27, 2006, defendant WROLSTAD presented to J.S. the final documents to close on the loan for the purchase of the real estate located at 811 Agnes Street, Sikeston, Missouri, including the promissory note and deed of trust securing repayment of the promissory note.

38. As part of the scheme, on or about April 27, 2006, in Cape Girardeau County, in the Eastern District of Missouri, defendant WROLSTAD notarized the Warranty Deed conveying 811 Agnes from M.S. and R.S. to J.S.

39. On or about April 27, 2006, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD caused to be prepared a false and fraudulent Settlement Statement for the sale and purchase of the property at 811 Agnes Street in Sikeston, Scott County, Missouri, which falsely and fraudulently reflected a sale price of $54,000. In fact, the sale price was $15,000.

40. As part of the scheme, defendant MCBRIDE paid, and caused to be paid $3092.07 on behalf of J.S. as closing expenses to assist J.S. in purchasing the real estate located at 811 Agnes.

41. On or about April 27, 2006, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD induced and caused Long Beach Mortgage to fund J.S.'s loan in the amount of $48,600.00 and to transfer funds in the approximate amount of $48,683.60 by wire transfer in interstate commerce from its bank account in Stockton, California, to Freedom Title's account with Commerce Bank in Missouri for disbursement in the Eastern District of Missouri.

42. At or shortly after closing Freedom Title paid approximately $15,000 of the mortgage loan proceeds to First Security State Bank to satisfy the first mortgage loan on 811

Agnes Street as the total compensation due sellers M.S. and R.S. for selling their interest in the real estate located at 811 Agnes Street.

43. As part of the scheme, on or about April 28, 2006, as part of the closing of the sale of the 811 Agnes property, defendants caused Freedom Title to wire transfer $21,337.12 from the escrow account of Freedom Title with Commerce Bank to U.S. Bank Account No. xxxxxxxx-5608 in the name of Russell Todd MCBRIDE.

44. As part of the scheme, on April 28, 2006, defendants caused Freedom Title to wire transfer the amount of $14,075.07 from the escrow account of Freedom Title with Commerce Bank to Regions Bank Account No. xx-xxxx-9706, in the name of Robert P. WROLSTAD and Ginger Swann-Wrolstad.

45. As part of the scheme, on or about April 28, 2006, defendants caused the Promissory Note, HUD-1 Settlement Statements, copies of the Warranty Deed and Deed of Trust, and other closing documents to be sent from the offices of Freedom Title in St. Louis, Missouri, by commercial interstate carrier to the offices of Long Beach Mortgage Company located at One Pierce Place, Suite 700, in Itasca, Illinois.

46. As part of the scheme, on or about August 29, 2006, defendants caused the Warranty Deed and Deed of Trust for the sale of the real estate located at 811 Agnes in Sikeston, Missouri, to be sent by commercial interstate carrier from the office of Freedom Title in St. Louis, Missouri, to the office of the Recorder of Deeds in Scott County, Missouri, located in Benton, in the Eastern District of Missouri.

47. Had the lender Long Beach Mortgage been aware that the actual contract selling price was $15,000.00, rather than $54,000.00; that the actual selling price received by sellers

M.L.S. and R.N.S. was $15,000.00; that the signatures of the sellers on the Contract for the Sale of Real Estate were forged; that the Buyer did not contribute any of his own funds to purchase the real estate located at 811 Agnes; and had Long Beach Mortgage known that the true market value of the real estate located at 811 Agnes in Sikeston, Missouri, was substantially less than the buying price of $54,000, Long Beach Mortgage would not have loaned approximately $48,600.00 to J.S. to purchase the property for $54,000.

309 Prosperity Property

48. As part of the scheme, on or about August 28, 2006, Defendant MCBRIDE encouraged M.B. to purchase and made arrangements to facilitate M.B. purchasing residential real estate located at 309 Prosperity Street in Sikeston, Scott County, Missouri.

49. As part of the scheme, M.B. purchased the real estate located at 309 Prosperity for approximately $66,000, when the actual selling price received by the Seller was $7,500.

50. As part of the scheme, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD prepared and caused to be prepared a Contract for the Sale of Real Estate for M.B.'s purchase of the real estate located at 309 Prosperity in Sikeston, Scott County, Missouri, which was for a stated purchase price of $66,000.00.

51. As part of the scheme, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD arranged for and obtained, and caused to be obtained a false and fraudulent appraisal of the property located at 309 Prosperity in Sikeston, Scott County, Missouri, falsely and fraudulently indicating that the property was worth $66,000.00, when in fact it was worth approximately $7500.

52. As part of the scheme, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD paid, and caused to be paid at least $8,000 on behalf of M.B. as down payment and closing expenses to assist M.B. in purchasing the real estate located at 309 Prosperity in Sikeston, Missouri.

53. As part of the scheme, on or about August 28, 2006, Long Beach Mortgage funded M.B.'s loan in the amount of $57,259.56 and transferred funds in the approximate amount of $57,259.56 by wire transfer in interstate commerce from its account in Stockton, California, to Freedom Title's account with Commerce Bank in Missouri for disbursement in the Eastern District of Missouri.

54. As part of the scheme, on or about August 28, 2006, Defendant MCBRIDE paid $3500 to M.B. for purchasing the property located at 309 Prosperity.

55. As part of the scheme, on or about August 29, 2006, as part of the closing of the sale of the 309 Prosperity property, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD caused Freedom Title to wire transfer $51,029.23 from the escrow account of Freedom Title with Commerce Bank to U.S. Bank Account No. xxxxxxxx-5608 in the name of Russell Todd MCBRIDE.

56. As part of the scheme, on or about August 29, 2006, defendants MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD caused Freedom Title to wire transfer $3071.93 from the escrow account of Freedom Title with Commerce Bank to Regions Bank Account No. xx-xxxx-9706, in the name of Robert P. WROLSTAD and Ginger Swann-Wrolstad.

57. As part of the scheme, on or about August 29, 2006, defendants caused the Promissory Note, HUD-1 Settlement Statements, copies of the Warranty Deed and Deed of Trust, and other closing documents to be sent by commercial interstate carrier from the office of Freedom Title in St. Louis, Missouri, to the offices of Long Beach Mortgage located at One Pierce Place, Suite 700, Itasca, Illinois 60143.

58. As part of the scheme, on or about August 29, 2006, defendants caused the Warranty Deed and Deed of Trust for the sale of the real estate located at 309 Prosperity to be sent by commercial interstate carrier from the office of Freedom Title in St. Louis, Missouri, to the office of the Recorder of Deeds in Scott County, Missouri, located in Benton, in the Eastern District of Missouri.

59. Had the lender Long Beach Mortgage been aware that the actual contract selling price was $7,500.00 rather than $66,000.00; that the actual selling price received by the Seller was $7,500.00; that the Buyer did not contribute any of her own funds to purchase the real estate located at 309 Prosperity; and had Long Beach Mortgage known that the true market value of the real estate located at 309 Prosperity in Sikeston, Missouri, was substantially less than the buying price of $66,000, Long Beach Mortgage would not have loaned approximately $59,400.00 to M.B. to purchase the property for $66,000.

60. The Grand Jury incorporates by reference as additional overt acts the mailings by commercial interstate carrier of the Promissory Notes, HUD-1 Settlement Statements, copies of the Warranty Deed and Deed of Trust, and other closing documents, and the wire transmissions set forth in Counts II through XXXIV, inclusive. The wire transmissions were in interstate commerce, in furtherance of and as a result of the conspiracy and scheme to defraud, as described above.

61. Between in or about July 2005 and until at least November 28, 2006, conspirators MCBRIDE and WROLSTAD paid and caused to be paid to victim-investors and appraisers, fees, commissions, and other monies for services and actions in connection with the scheme.
