

April 9, 2008

dear SEC folks

it has been years now and all you have done is layer rule upon rule concerning naked short selling.

you have failed miserably in protecting the investing public.

in my mind you are nothing more than a criminal organization protecting special interests and big money folks.

if you are protecting us then why was i denied selling stock i bought?

why did WELLSTRADE INVESTMENTS tell me i did not own the stock i bought?

furthermore if i didnt own it why was that stock in my account?

i have the proof that i owned that stock.

thanks to your lack of enforcement i lost $154,000.00 thanks to your lack of enforcement i am now FORCED into bankruptcy.

i am certain if this happened to one of YOU, heads would roll people fired and mountains moved to get your money back.

that is not the scenario for us little folks is it?

you have had ample time to rectify the fraud in this market. you refuse to do nothing but flap yer mouth and pretend you are "enforcing" the laws.

i laugh at you.

you are an embarassment to america.

shame on you shame on you shame on you.

if you have any compassion at all you would have fixed this problem already.

apparently you do not give a rats hind end about anyone but yourselves.

mr cox i hold you personally responsible.