

BioTech Medics, Inc.TM

"Alternatives for the 21st Century!"

Chairman Christopher Cox
Securities & Exchange Commission
Washington, DC

May 19, 2008

RE: REG SHO, Proposed Rule 10B-21

Dear Chairman Cox:

As Chairman and CEO of BioTech Medics, Inc., (Pinksheets: BMCS) I would like to endorse what was said in an earlier response by Pat Cluney from Florida and add to what has already been posted. Mr. Cluney is a shareholder in BMCS.

I have witnessed from personal experience over three and a half (3-1/2) years of illegal manipulation of our stock, inclusive of counterfeiting, forging, shorting and naked shorting. I have filed over a hundred Suspicious Trading Reports (SARS) with every regulatory agency imaginable and over 36,000 pages of evidence with the SEC.

There is no discipline with naked shorting and repeat offenders have no fear of the SEC because the chances of a violator being caught and disciplined is negligible. Most of the repeat offenders take the same cavalier attitude as that of a serial killer. Once you have killed, the penalty is no greater for repeat killings. So illegal manipulation of stocks continues daily by repeat offenders with impunity.

Case in point: CMKM Diamonds (a/k/a Casavant Mining, now revoked former stock symbol: CMKX). The SEC has had an ongoing investigation for over 5 years titled: In the Matter of CMKM Diamonds, Inc., LA-3028. This case goes back to 2002 and involves approximately $100 million in theft of investor funds with nearly ONE TRILLION Shares of stock, a majority of which were illegally issued without pre-requisite restrictions, legal opinions; or legal opinions issued from deceased attorneys and/or were naked shorted in the market with counterfeit shares. It was not until April 7, 2008 that the SEC has finally taken action in US Dist. Court, Las Vegas, NV regarding this egregious fraud upon the investing public. Most of the stolen funds are gone, leaving investors pennies on the dollar if anything.

The "mastermind" (SEC words not mine) in this fraud, John Edwards was also the "mastermind" of illegally issued shares in BioTech Medics (and dozens more pennystocks). Edwards had numerous accomplices who have yet to be cited by the SEC. The fraud in our case stems back to 2002 and involves scores of millions of dollars in fraud and over 50 million shares that we have been able to verify in an audit of our shareholders.

However, FINRA over a year ago in the CMKX matter sanctioned NevWest Securities Corp (CRD # 46464) of Las Vegas and Sergey Rummyantsev and Anthony Santos $100,000 and

BioTech Medics, Inc.™

"Alternatives for the 21st Century!"

$75,000 each respectively, for laundering over $58 million of John Edwards and over 20 of his sham shell trusts and companies that were used to perpetrate the alleged fraud and benefit from the naked shorting. NevWest reportedly received over $2.4 million in commissions.

So the alleged manipulators got away with $58 million and the sanctioned stock broker facilitators were slapped on the wrist and got away with nearly $2 million in profits. Where is the justice in this "discipline"???

Another case in point: In the Matter of SEC vs. Pinnacle Business Management and Jeffrey G. Turino, Case No. 8:02-cv-00822-EAK, US Dist Ct, Tampa Div. Judge Elizabeth Kovachevich found Turino guilty of violating the Securities Act and prohibited Turino from trading penny stocks for five years (which ends December 5, 2008). Within five (5) days subsequent to Judge Kovachevich's Order, Turino allegedly had established one or more sham sell corporations to trade the CMKX stock and scores of other stocks since that time, all in violation of the Order and in full contempt of court. Where is the SEC?

The SEC is impudent, under staffed and overwhelmed by the avalanche of stock fraud. You, Mr. Cox admitted in your March 4, 2008 statement that the SEC had received over 400 complaints in the past year alleging stock fraud. That is over one complaint per day. In my opinion: When will enough be enough? How much evidence do you need?

A representative of OTCBB commented regarding their SHORT REPORTING. It is FLAWED. The OTCBB representative stated that a) there is no guarantee as to 100% compliance, b) offshore non NASDAQ brokerage firms are not required to report shorting, c) offshore brokerage firms permit a higher ratio of shorting stock against restricted shares and d) sophisticated shorters can circumvent reporting by getting out of their short position on the short reporting days and get back in the next day.

My recommendations

1) PROHIBIT ANY AND ALL SHORTING OF PENNY STOCKS PERIOD!

These fledging companies have enough mine fields to get through to become successful. By the SEC allowing legitimate and illegitimate parties to run a penny stock price up and then short it to profit from taking it down (pump and dump) is just not fair to the investing retail market.

2) REQUIRE THE POSTING OF A 25% OR HIGHER SHORT DEPOSIT BY ANY PARTY SHORTING ANY STOCKS ON ANY MAJOR EXCHANGE.

The Short Deposit would be proportionate to the amount of stock shorted. For example: If John Doe wants to short XXXX –NASDAQ or AMEX shares, he must post a cash short deposit with the brokerage firm of Twenty-five Percent (25%) of the shorted value. The short deposit must be held by the brokerage firm for a term of a minimum of six (6) months subsequent to the last shorted trade. Any public company that alleges improprieties files a Suspicious Trading Activity Report and a mandatory

BioTech Medics, Inc.TM

"Alternatives for the 21st Century!"

- arbitration hearing must take place within sixty (60) days. If the shored public company prevails in arbitration, they receive the cash Short Deposit, plus any other award granted by the arbitration. If the shorter has been found to violate any rules, the shorter will be prohibited via permanent injunction for life from shorting again.
- 3) REQUIRE A SUBSTANTIAL AND IMMEDIATE PENALTY FOR NON-REPORTING BROKERAGE DEALERS IN THEIR FAILURE TO REPORT THE SHORTING OF STOCK (i.e. $100,000 first offense, $500,000 second).
 - 4) REQUIRE THE REPORTING OF ANY SHORT POSITION DURING ANY THIRTY (30) DAY PERIOD WHEN THE SHORTING IS IN EXCESS OF ONE HUNDRED SHARES OR THE VALUE EXCEEDS $100.
 - 5) BROKERAGE FIRMS AND THIRD PARTIES WHO AID AND ABET A KNOWN ADJUDGED STOCK FRAUDSTAR WILL BE FINED $1 MILLION.
 - 6) IF THE SEC FAILS OR REFUSES TO TAKE ACTION ON A REPORTED ALLEGED VIOLATION OF SECURITIES FRAUD WITHIN SIX (6) MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THE FILING OF A COMPLAINT, AN INDIVIDUAL MAY SEEK REDRESS IN FEDERAL COURT. IF THE PARTY PREVAILS THEY WILL RECEIVE TREBLE DAMAGES, PLUS LEGAL FEES AND COSTS.

Respectfully submitted,

Chairman/CEO
BioTech Medics, Inc.
P O Box 93476
Southlake, TX 76092
Phone 972-274-5533

CC: SEC Enforcement-Washington, DC
US Dept of Justice-US Attorney
S Dist of NY, NYC