Dear Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs Hunt:

It is my understanding that the OMB Draft Guidelines for the Conduct of Regulatory Analysis and the Format of Accounting Statements proposes that

- 1) The value of my life will be devalued by 40% effective immediately,
- 2) And then devalued by an additional 33% nine years from now, when I turn 70.

How dare you!

This White House ploy shows that it thinks more about protecting business and industry than it does about protecting the health and safety of people.

I was never an activist before, but the Bush positions of pseudo-patriotism, secrecy, and pro-business anti-environmentalism have changed all that.

I'm mad. And now I'm energized as well.

Sincerely,

James McBride
