Dear Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs Hunt:

The "OMB Draft Guidelines for the Conduct of Regulatory Analysis and the Format of Accounting Statements" concludes that saving the life of an elderly person is worth less than saving the life of a younger person. As an American citizen who is the grandchild of several senior citizen, I find that devaluing an elderly person's life is unethical and unmoral. Disgusting, in fact. This is just a precursor to weakening the health and safety standards in order to protect industry and their profits. But at the expense of peoples health and safety!

Please protect all our citizens health and safety by scraping the OMB Draft guidelines.

Sincerely,

Ellen Lougee
