

Evelyn Y. Davis

Editor

HIGHLIGHTS AND LOWLIGHTS

Evelyn Y. Davis was born in Amsterdam, the Netherlands “on the wrong side of the ocean but the very right side of the tracks.”

She graduated from Catonsville, Maryland high school in 1947 and attended George Washington University where she studied Business Administration.

Mrs. Davis is a shareholder in some eighty (80) corporations in diverse industries and has attended shareholder meetings all over the country since 1960.

She started the nationally known publication HIGHLIGHTS AND LOWLIGHTS in 1965; the newsletter covers corporate governance, executive compensation, location and dates of meetings, as well as the votes and issues on numerous shareholder proposals and SOME Washington issues.

Evelyn Y. Davis has lectured on corporate governance issues at many universities and colleges and elsewhere including Babson College, Northwestern University’s Medill School of Journalism, the Darden School of Business at the University of Virginia, Penn State’s School of Journalism, the Watergate Complex and many other places.

Evelyn has appeared on many national television shows including CNBC, CNN, the Nightly Business News, Fox Television, the Today Show and many, many other programs. In addition she has been featured in many newspapers and magazines.

Mrs. Davis is a four times Divorcee with NO children, and resides in Watergate East where she is on the co-op’s Finance Committee. She maintains her office at the Watergate Office Building.