Immediately before becoming a member of the Court of Chancery, Vice Chancellor Strine was Counsel to Governor Thomas R. Carper of the State of Delaware. In that capacity, Vice Chancellor Strine was responsible for providing legal counsel to the Governor and in 1994 assumed responsibility for overall policy coordination. In those capacities, Vice Chancellor Strine played leading roles in, among other things, developing the legal strategy for litigating the New Castle County desegregation case unitary status motion, crafting the $200 million Delaware v. New York settlement, and drafting the welfare reform plan “A Better Chance.” He also drafted and spearheaded the Governor’s effort to secure passage of the State’s standards-based educational accountability, charter school and public school choice legislation.

Before becoming Counsel to Governor Carper in January 1993, Vice Chancellor Strine was a corporate litigator at the firm of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom. Prior to that, Vice Chancellor Strine was law clerk to Judge Walter K. Stapleton of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and Chief Judge John F. Gerry of the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey. Vice Chancellor Strine graduated magna cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1988, and was selected as a member of the Order of the Coif. In 1985, he received his Bachelor’s Degree summa cum laude from the University of Delaware and was selected as a member of Phi Beta Kappa. While at the University of Delaware, Vice Chancellor Strine was awarded a Harry S. Truman Scholarship. He was also named to the Panel of Distinguished Seniors of the College of Arts and Science, and selected as the outstanding graduate in political science.

In December 2000, Governor Carper awarded Vice Chancellor Strine the Order of the First State. On October 11, 2002, President David Roselle of the University of Delaware presented Vice Chancellor Strine with the University’s Presidential Citation for Outstanding Achievement. In 2005 and 2006, Vice Chancellor Strine was named as one of the nation’s top lawyers and judges by Law Dragon magazine. Also, in 2006, he was selected as a Henry Crown Fellow at the Aspen Institute.

Vice Chancellor Strine resides in Hockessin, Delaware, with his wife Carrie, who is an occupational therapist at the DuPont Hospital for Children, as well as his two young sons, James and Benjamin.
