

CENTRAL/EASTERN EUROPE

Chairman Kennard with Gabor Frischmann, Chairman of the Hungarian Communications Authority and Hungarian Regulators

January 11-13, 2001, FCC staff members participate with regulators from Hungary, Thailand and the Philippines in experts talks on universal service and regulatory practice at the second International Workshop on Communications Regulation. The Los Angeles, California event was sponsored by the Institute on Global Conflict and Communications (University of California San Diego) and the Annenberg Center for Communications (University of Southern California).

- December 2000: In Budapest, Hungary, Chairman Kennard conducts bilateral meetings and regulatory seminar for senior officials from Hungarian Telecommunications Authority, Hungarian Media Board, and the Department for InfoCommunication Regulation, Prime Minister's office.
- November 2000: Chairman Kennard holds bilateral meetings with senior regulators from Hungary and Turkey in Geneva during ITU-D Development Symposium for Regulators.
- November 2000: FCC staff hold bilateral discussions with the Chairman of Turkey's Telecom Authority and participate as expert panelist in Turkish regulator's conference on liberalization in Istanbul.

FCC International Bureau Staff participation in Telecommunications Conference held in Istanbul, Turkey, November 2000