The United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware serves as the principal litigator for its judicial district and is responsible for coordinating multiple agency investigations within the district. The United States Attorney has the responsibility and authority to prosecute violations of federal criminal statutes, defend the government in civil actions, seek the enforcement of a variety of civil enforcement statutes, and institute proceedings for the collection of fines and penalties among other things. For a District of its size, this office has an unusually large number of cases involving public corruption, environmental violations, and bankruptcy.
