Subject: ENERGY STAR for Windows, Doors, and Skylights Announcement

Dear ENERGY STAR for Windows, Doors, and Skylights Stakeholder:

In response to stakeholder feedback at the meeting on August 13, the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) has decided to extend the comment period for the criteria revision. Send written comments and corresponding documentation via e-mail, with "Criteria Revision" in the subject line, by October 17, 2008, to:

Richard Karney
richard.karney@ee.doe.gov and Emily Zachery
D&R International
ezachery@drintl.com

DOE seeks supporting data and documentation for all comments submitted. If your submission contains confidential information, please indicate so clearly and prominently at the top of the document(s). With the exception of those labeled as confidential, stakeholder comments will be posted to the Web site address below.

The handouts, presentations, and registrant list from the stakeholder meeting are scheduled to be posted by the end of this week at http://www.energystar.gov/index.cfm?c=archives.windows_criteria_amendment. Meeting notes will be added as soon as they are available.

Thank you for supporting ENERGY STAR.
