Interpretive Center presents Mike Follin's Dr. Balthazar

Baker City, OR – The National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center is pleased to present Dr. Balthazar by Mike Follin in the Leo Adler Theater July 19th through 22nd at 10 a.m., noon and 2 p.m.

Flim-flam artists, con-men, and never-do-wells on the Oregon Trail? Not your image of the folks who made their way from St. Joseph or Independence, Missouri to the banks of the Willamette? Then you need to come on out to the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center and meet Dr. Balthazar. Mike Follin's hilarious forty-minute rendering of this fast talking, slippery snake-oil salesman, "Dr. Balthazar and His Marvelous Miracle Medicine Show" will surely give you a few second thoughts about the emigrants on the Oregon Trail as well as a lot of laughs. Dr. Balthazar knows he can cure anything from the common cold to a death of two week standing!

The National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center is located on Highway 86, five miles east of Baker City and is open daily from 9 am to 6 pm. For additional information, please call 541-523-1843 or visit us on the web at oregontrail.blm.gov. Be sure to bring your ailments!
