WESTERN OREGON PLAN REVISION

Public workshop to discuss issues and how to provide comments
October 3, 6:00 -9:00 PM

Roseburg, OR- A public workshop to encourage community discussion on the Bureau of Land Management's Western Oregon Plan Revision will be held on October 3 from 6:00 – 9:00 PM. The meeting will take place in the Ford Room at the Douglas County Library.

The meeting will be facilitated by Daylight Decisions of Portland, Oregon. Daylight Decisions specializes in helping businesses and communities deal with complex issues, while working cooperatively and collaboratively toward a final decision.

Following a brief introduction by Roseburg BLM District Manager, Jay Carlson, participants will be asked to work together and discuss key issues and concerns. Participants will also receive instructions on how to provide either written or web-based comments on BLMs proposed revision of its western Oregon land-use plan.
