

- (I) The actual recipients of the subsidy, whether considered on an enterprise or industry basis, are limited in number.
- (II) An enterprise or industry is a predominant user of the subsidy.
- (III) An enterprise or industry receives a disproportionately large amount of the subsidy.
- (IV) The manner in which the authority providing the subsidy has exercised discretion in the decision to grant the subsidy indicates that an enterprise or industry is favored over others.

Pursuant to section 771(5A)(D)(iii)(I) of the Act, the Department preliminarily finds that under DLI program, the actual recipients of the subsidy are not limited in number, as there are many users of the program that fall into 31 industries. See GOK's July 15, 2005, submission at Exhibit G-4-M.

Sections 771(5A)(D)(iii)(II) and (III) of the Act direct the Department to examine whether an enterprise or an industry is a predominant user of the subsidy or receives a disproportionately large amount of the subsidy. Although the steel industry received a greater monetary benefit from the program than did other participants, that is not determinative of whether the steel industry was a dominant user or received disproportionate benefits. For example, in CTL Plate Investigation, the Department found that respondent steel companies were not dominant or disproportionate users of a similar electricity program. See CTL Plate Investigation, 64 FR at 73186. The Department also stated that "the fact that certain companies are necessarily large consumers of electricity does not make an electricity program providing tariff reductions to those companies countervailable." Id. Furthermore, the U.S. Court of International Trade (CIT) upheld the Department's decision in Bethlehem Steel Corp. v. United States, 140 F.Supp 2d 1354 (CIT 2001). The CIT found that the Department's methodology was reasonable and reflected the commercial realities of the industry in question. Id., at 1369.

Consistent with our finding in CTL Plate Investigation, we preliminarily determine that although the steel industry is a large consumer of electricity and, therefore, a large recipient of the tariff reduction, this does not support a conclusion that the percentage of the benefits DSM or the steel industry received were disproportionately high or that the company or the industry was a dominant user. Accordingly, we preliminarily find that the DLI program is not de facto specific and is, therefore, not countervailable.

Preliminary Results of Review

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.221(b)(4)(i), we calculated a subsidy rate for DSM for 2004. We preliminarily determine the total estimated net countervailable subsidy rate for DSM is 0.05 percent ad valorem for 2004, which is de minimis. See 19 CFR 351.106(c)(1).

If the final results of this review remain the same as these preliminary results, the Department intends to instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), within 15 days of publication of the final results, to liquidate shipments of certain cut-to-length carbon-quality steel from DSM, entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption from January 1, 2004, through December 31, 2004, at 0.00 percent. Also, the Department intends to instruct CBP to require a new cash deposit rate for estimated countervailing duties of 0.00 percent for all shipments of certain cut-to-length carbon-quality steel plate from DSM, entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the publication of the final results of this administrative review. The Department will issue appropriate instructions directly to CBP within 15 days of the final results of this review.

We will instruct CBP to continue to collect cash deposits for non-reviewed companies at the most recent company-specific or country-wide rate applicable to the company. Accordingly, the cash deposit rates that will be applied to non-reviewed companies covered by this order are those established in the most recently completed administrative proceeding. See CTL Plate Order, 65 FR 6589. These rates shall apply to all non-reviewed companies until a review of a company assigned these rates is requested.

Public Comment

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.224(b), the Department will disclose to parties to the proceeding any calculations performed in connection with these preliminary results within five days after the date of the public announcement of this notice. Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.309(b)(1), interested parties may submit written arguments in response to these preliminary results. Unless otherwise indicated by the Department, case briefs must be submitted within 30 days after the date of publication of this notice, and rebuttal briefs, limited to arguments raised in case briefs, must be submitted no later than five days after the time limit for filing case briefs. See 19 CFR 351.309(c)(1)(ii). Parties who submit written arguments in this proceeding are requested to submit with the written argument: (1) a statement of the issue, and (2) a brief summary of the argument. Parties submitting case and/or rebuttal briefs are requested to provide the Department copies of the public version on disk. Case and rebuttal briefs must be served on interested parties in accordance with 19 CFR 351.303(f). Also, pursuant to 19 CFR 351.310, within 30 days of the date of publication of this notice, interested parties may request a public hearing on arguments to be raised in the case and rebuttal briefs. Unless the Secretary specifies otherwise, the hearing, if requested, will be held two days after the date for submission of rebuttal briefs, that is, 37 days after the date of publication of these preliminary results.

Representatives of parties to the proceeding may request disclosure of proprietary information under administrative protective order no later than 10 days after the representative's client or employer becomes a party to the proceeding, but in no event later than the date the case briefs, under 19 CFR 351.309(c)(1)(ii), are due. The Department will publish the final results of this administrative review, including the results of its analysis of arguments made in any case or rebuttal briefs.

This administrative review is issued and published in accordance with sections 751(a)(1) and 777(i)(1) of the Act.

Dated: February 28, 2006.

David M. Spooner,

Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

Wooden Bedroom Furniture From the People's Republic of China; Initiation of New Shipper Reviews

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 7, 2006.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (the "Department") has determined that three requests for a new shipper review of the antidumping duty order on wooden bedroom furniture from the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), received by January 31, 2006, meet the statutory and regulatory requirements for initiation. The period of review ("POR") of these new shipper reviews is June 24, 2004, through December 31, 2005.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Eugene Degnan or Robert Bolling at (202) 482-0414 or (202) 482-3434, respectively, AD/CVD Operations, Office 8, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The notice announcing the antidumping duty order on wooden bedroom furniture from the PRC was published on January 4, 2005 (70 FR 329). On January 31, 2006, we received new shipper review requests from Dongguan Huanghouse Furniture Co., Ltd. ("Huanghouse"), Senyuan Furniture Group ("Senyuan"), and Tianjin First Wood Co., Ltd. ("First Wood"). All of these companies certified that they are both the producers and exporters of the subject merchandise upon which the respective requests for a new shipper review are based.

Pursuant to section 751(a)(2)(B)(i)(I) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the "Act"), and 19 CFR 351.214(b)(2)(i), Huanghouse, Senyuan, and First Wood certified that they did not export wooden bedroom furniture to the
