SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Section 118 of the Copyright Act, title 17 of the United States Code, establishes a statutory license for the use of certain copyrighted works in connection with noncommercial television and radio broadcasting. The terms and rates for this statutory license have been adjusted periodically by the Librarian of Congress and appear in 37 CFR Part 253. However, the Copyright Royalty and Distribution Reform Act of 2004, Pub. L. No. 108–419, transferred jurisdiction over these rates and terms to the Copyright Royalty Judges. 17 U.S.C. 801(b)(1). This is a window year for the establishment of new rates and terms for the 2008–2012 license period.

On January 9, 2006, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. 803(b)(1)(A)(i)(V), the Copyright Royalty Judges published a notice in the Federal Register announcing commencement of proceedings under 17 U.S.C. 118 and requesting interested parties to submit their petitions to participate. 71 FR 1453 (January 9, 2006). Petitions to participate were received from: the American Council on Education (“ACE”); the National Music Publishers Association, Inc. (“NMPA”); the Harry Fox Agency (“HFA”); the National Religious Broadcasters Noncommercial Music License Committee (“NRBNMLC”); Royalty Logic, Inc.; the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (“ASCAP”); Broadcast Music, Inc. (“BMI”); SESAC, Inc.; National Public Radio (“NPR”); the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (“CPB”); the Public Broadcasting Service (“PBS”); and the Church Music Publishers Association, Inc. The Judges set the timetable for the three-month negotiation period, see 17 U.S.C. 803(b)(3), and directed the participants to submit their written direct statements no later than January 30, 2007. Instead of written direct statements, the parties submitted notification of settlements and proposed rates and terms for the Copyright Royalty Judges to adopt.

There are two ways that copyright owners and public broadcasting entities<sup>1</sup> may negotiate rates and terms under the section 118 statutory license. First, copyright owners may negotiate rates and terms with specific public broadcasting entities for the use of all of the copyright owners' works covered by the license. Section 118(b)(2) provides that such license agreements "shall be given effect in lieu of any determination by the * * * Copyright Royalty Judges," provided that copies of the agreements are submitted to the Copyright Royalty Board "within 30 days of execution." 17 U.S.C. 118(b)(2). The Copyright Royalty Judges received notification of several agreements in this category for which no further action is required.

Second, copyright owners and public broadcasting entities may negotiate rates and terms for categories of copyrighted works and uses, that would be binding on all owners and entities, and submit them to the Copyright Royalty Judges for approval. Section 801(b)(7)(A) provides that in such event:

(i) the Copyright Royalty Judges shall provide to those that would be bound by the terms, rates, or other determination set by any agreement in a proceeding to determine royalty rates an opportunity to comment on the agreement and shall provide to participants in the proceeding under section 803(b)(2) that would be bound by the terms, rates, or other determination set by the agreement to comment on the agreement and object to its adoption as a basis for statutory terms and rates; and

(ii) the Copyright Royalty Judges may decline to adopt the agreement as a basis for statutory terms and rates for participants that are not parties to the agreement, if any participant described in clause (i) objects to the agreement and the Copyright Royalty Judges conclude, based on the record before them if one exists, that the agreement does not provide a reasonable basis for setting statutory terms or rates.

17 U.S.C. 801(b)(7)(A). The Copyright Royalty Judges received seven proposals within this category: (1) A joint proposal of BMI and the NRBNMLC; (2) a joint proposal of ASCAP and ACE; (3) a joint proposal of SESAC and ACE; (4) a joint proposal of HFA, NMPA and the NRBNMLC; (5) a joint proposal of

SESAC and the NRBNMLC; (6) a joint proposal of ASCAP and the NRBNMLC; and (7) a joint proposal of BMI and ACE. After reviewing the proposals, the Copyright Royalty Judges determined that they were insufficient on their face.<sup>2</sup> By Order dated February 22, 2007, the Judges directed the parties to amend their proposals. On March 15, 2007, ACE, ASCAP, BMI, HFA, NMPA, NPR, NRBNMLC, PBS and SESAC submitted a joint proposal for section 118 rates and terms. It is this proposal that the Judges are publishing today for comment.<sup>3</sup>

As part of this notice of proposed rulemaking ("NPRM"), the Copyright Royalty Judges are modifying three aspects of the joint proposal. First, the proposed regulations for terms governing the recording of nondramatic performances and displays of musical works and the terms for the use of published pictorial, graphic and sculptural works require the deposit with the Copyright Office of cue sheets (for musical works) and standard lists (for pictorial, graphic and sculptural works) in hard copy format. We are changing these provisions to require submission of cue sheets and standard lists in electronic disk format only (due to space limitations) and requiring that they be submitted to the offices of the Copyright Royalty Board rather than the Copyright Office.

Second, the joint proposal requires public broadcasting entities to make information concerning fees deposited in trust funds for unknown copyright owners available upon request to the Copyright Office. We are changing the provision to make the information available to the Copyright Royalty Judges instead of the Copyright Office.

Third, the parties have included a provision in their proposal governing the rates and terms applicable to certain public broadcasting entities that states that such rates and terms are experimental, without precedential effect, and may not be introduced or relied upon in any governmental, administrative or judicial proceeding. The Copyright Royalty Judges decline to include such a provision within our <sup>2</sup> The reason for the insufficiency was the parties' incorrect assumption that the Copyright Royalty Judges would be amending part 253 of title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations—the Copyright Office's rules—rather than our own rules. As a result, the parties only proposed amendments rather than a complete text of regulations.

<sup>3</sup> Part 381, which we propose today, will be part of a new Subchapter E which will contain the rates and terms for the various statutory licenses. This new subchapter will be established upon the publication of the final determination of the rates and terms for the section 112 and 114 statutory licenses, Docket No. 2005–1 CRB DTRA, and will contain Part 380.

regulations. Our task, as set forth in section 118 and chapter 8 of the Copyright Act, is to adopt rates and terms for the noncommercial broadcasting license. It is not our task to offer evaluations, limitations or characterizations of the rates and terms, or make statements about their use or value in proceedings other than this one.

As discussed above, the public may comment and object to any or all of the proposed regulations contained in this NPRM. Those who do comment and object, however, must be prepared to participate in further proceedings in this docket to establish rates and terms for the section 118 license.

(2) Predicted 60 dBu Contour shall be calculated as set forth in 47 CFR 73.313.

(3) Translator Station and Booster Station shall have the same meanings as set forth in 47 CFR 74.1201.

§ 381.7 Recording rights, rates and terms.

The rates and terms established in this schedule include the making of the reproductions described in 17 U.S.C. 118(c)(3).

(b) Royalty rate. (1)(i) For uses described in paragraph (a) of this section of a musical work in a PBS-distributed program, the royalty fees shall be calculated by multiplying the following per-composition rates by the number of different compositions in that PBS-distributed program:

(B) Concert feature (per minute) .....	44.59

(B) Concert feature (per minute) .....	2.48
(C) Background .....	4.10
(D) Theme:
(1) Single program or first series of program .....	4.10
(2) Other series program .....	1.63

(iii) In the event the work is first recorded other than in a PBS-distributed program, and such program is subsequently distributed by PBS, an additional royalty payment shall be made equal to the difference between the rate specified in this section for other than a PBS-distributed program and the rate specified in this section for a PBS-distributed program.

(2) For uses licensed herein of a musical work in a NPR program, the royalty fees shall be calculated by multiplying the following per-composition rates by the number of different compositions in any NPR program distributed by NPR. 	2008–2012
(i) Feature .....	$12.35
(ii) Concert feature (per minute) .....	18.13

(4) For such uses other than in an NPR-produced radio program:

	2008–2012
(i) Feature .....	$.79
(ii) Feature (concert) (per half hour) .....	1.65
(iii) Background .....	.40

(5) The schedule of fees covers use for a period of three years following the first use. Succeeding use periods will require the following additional payment: additional one-year period—25 percent of the initial three-year fee; second three-year period—50 percent of the initial three-year fee; each three-year fee thereafter—25 percent of the initial three-year fee; provided that a 100 percent additional payment prior to the expiration of the first three-year period will cover use during all subsequent use periods without limitation. Such succeeding uses which are subsequent to December 31, 2012, shall be subject to the royalty rates established in this schedule.

(c) Payment of royalty rates. The required royalty rates shall be paid to each known copyright owner not later than July 31 of each calendar year for uses during the first six months of that calendar year, and not later than January 31 for uses during the last six months of the preceding calendar year.

(d) Records of use. (1) Maintenance of cue sheets. Approval and Promulgation of Implementation Plans; Revisions to the Nevada State Implementation Plan; Stationary Source Permits

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: EPA is proposing, under the Clean Air Act, approval of certain revisions to the applicable state implementation plan for the State of Nevada and full disapproval of certain other revisions. These revisions involve State rules governing applications for, and issuance of, permits for stationary sources, but not including review and permitting of major sources and major modifications under parts C and D of title I of the Clean Air Act. These revisions involve submittal of certain new or amended State rules and requests by the State for rescission of certain existing rules from the state implementation plan. The rescission requests for which we propose approval are contingent upon receipt of public notice and hearing documentation from the State. EPA is proposing this action under the Clean Air Act obligation to take action on State submittals of revisions to state implementation plans. The intended effect is to update the rules governing permitting in the applicable state implementation plan and to rescind unnecessary provisions from the applicable plan. EPA is taking comments on this proposal and plans to follow with a final action.
