Dear Mr. Renicker:

Thank you very much for the photograph of Pvt. Andrew Ohler who is buried in Stones River National Cemetery. The photograph and information that you were so kind to send has been placed in a special research file. If you should have copies of his military records, available from the National Archives, we would be pleased to place these in his file along with the photograph.

It is only through efforts of descendents such as yourself that we are able to learn more of the soldiers who gave their lives in defense of the Union. Unfortunately, the names of more than one-third of the 6,000 Civil War burials in the National Cemetery remain unknown.

Sincerely,

Donald E. Magee
Superintendent
