(o) Meet with Suppliers, Export Trade Intermediaries, or trade associations periodically to discuss matters specific to exporting Product (not related to price and supply arrangements between applicant and the individual suppliers) such as relevant facts concerning export markets (e.g. demand conditions, transportation costs and prices), or the possibility of joint marketing, selling or bidding arrangements in the export markets.

Definition

"Export Trade Intermediary" means a person who acts as distributor, sales representative, sales or marketing agent, or broker, or who performs similar functions including or arranging for the provision of Export Trade Facilitation Services.

"Supplier" means a person who produces, provides or sells a Product.

Terms and Conditions of Certificate

1. In engaging in Export Trade Activities and Methods of Operation, ACC shall not intentionally disclose, directly or indirectly, to any Supplier any information regarding its or any other Supplier's costs, production, capacity, inventories, domestic prices, domestic sales, domestic customers, or U.S. business plans, strategies, or methods, unless such information is already generally available to the trade or public.

2. ACC will comply with requests made by the Secretary of Commerce on behalf of the Secretary or the Attorney General for information or documents relevant to conduct under the Certificate. The Secretary of Commerce will request such information or documents when either the Attorney General or the Secretary of Commerce believes that the information or documents are required to determine that the Export Trade, Export Trade Activities and Methods of Operation of a person protected by this Certificate of Review continue to comply with the standards of section 303(a) of the Act.

A copy of this certificate will be kept in the International Trade Administration's Freedom of Information Records Inspection Facility Room 4102, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230.
