Dear Tribal Leader,

With the tribal leader letter dated December 27, 2005, you received a compact disc containing preliminary drafts of regulations necessary to implement the American Indian Probate Reform Act (AIPRA) and the Fiduciary Trust Model. We held the first of a series of tribal consultation meetings in Albuquerque, New Mexico on February 14 -15, 2006 and in Portland, Oregon on Wednesday, March 29, 2006. These meetings focused on the AIPRA-related regulations.

The initial comment period, December 27, 2005 – March 31, 2006, was an opportunity for tribes and other interested parties to submit comments and recommendations before the regulations are proposed in the Federal Register. We received many comments on the draft regulations, both in writing and during the consultation meetings. Interior's work groups carefully considered the comments and incorporated recommendations and comments where possible. To ensure that you have the proposed regulations for review, please find enclosed a CD containing the preamble and the regulatory language that will be proposed in the Federal Register in the coming weeks.

The regulations being proposed amend regulations addressing probate (25 CFR 15), rules applicable to probate hearings and appeals (43 CFR 4), Indian land records and title documents (25 CFR 150), conveyance of Indian trust or restricted land and removal of trust or restricted status (25 CFR 152), and life estates and future interests (25 CFR 179), and create a new Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) part addressing tribal probate codes (25 CFR 18).

Also in conjunction with the public comment period, we encourage tribes, tribal leaders, trust beneficiaries and other individuals working with and on behalf of these groups to submit comments on the proposed regulations. You may submit your comments in writing to Michele Singer, 1849 C Street, NW, Mail Stop 4141, Washington, DC 20240.
