To exchange personal data for purposes of identifying individuals who are employed and also are receiving payments pursuant to TANF benefit programs being administered by State TANF programs and to verify continuing eligibility for TANF benefits.

OSCE will match public assistance records, furnished by State TANF programs, against information in the NDNH. After matching has been conducted, OSCE will provide match results to State TANF programs which will use this information to verify the continued eligibility of individuals to receive public assistance benefits and, if ineligible, to take such action, as may be authorized by law and regulation.
