

Small Business/Self Employed Tax Services

Offered by: U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS),
Small Business/Self Employed Division (SB/SE)

Target Credit

Union Participants: Small Businesses and Self Employed credit union members

Eligible Programs for Credit Unions: SB/SE Division's programs offers the below initiatives to credit unions and their memberships:

- Information regarding starting, operating, and closing a business.
- Employer Identification Number (EIN) information.
- Assistance in establishing a tax (informational) center on the credit union's website.
- Free products and educational products for businesses.
- A method to electronically transfer funds for employee taxes (e.g., social security and federal taxes) from the member's account to the Treasury.
- Up-to-date communications regarding business taxes.

Program Objectives: Develop a partnership to assist business owners and self-employed consumers.

Credit Union Eligibility: Credit unions offering business loans to their membership.

Program Cost: Free

Contact: Internal Revenue Service
Communications Liaison & Disclosure, Stakeholder Liaison—
Industry Liaison
3848 W. Columbus Drive
Tampa, FL 33607
Phone: 813-315-2445
E-mail: Carolyn.S. Sanders-Walsh@irs.gov