F.2 PERIOD OF CONTRACT

The contract becomes effective on Date of Award and continues in effect for a 2-year base period. In addition, the period of the contract is subject to four (4) two-year option periods at the prices provided for in Section B.

F.3 OPTION TO EXTEND THE TERM OF THE CONTRACT

The Government may exercise the options identified in Section F.2 by written notice to the Contractor within thirty (30) days prior to contract expiration. If the Government exercises this option, the extended contract shall be considered to include this option provision.

F.4 SCHEDULE OF DELIVERABLES

Within thirty (30) days after award of a contract, the Contractor shall provide to the Administrative Contracting Officer a fully redacted version of the contract, including all documents that are incorporated by reference on the Standard Form 26. The Contractor shall provide a camera-ready redacted copy and a matching copy that highlights the portions that have been redacted. Both copies must be in electronic format, and will be provided on the same CD-ROM. The Contractor must work diligently with the ACO until the Government and Contractor can agree upon all redacted material.

The Contractor shall provide the required deliverables based on the schedule identified in individual task orders issued by the Government. Specific means and format of deliverables will be specified in individual task orders.

F.5 CONTRACT DELIVERABLE ACCEPTANCE

Any contract documentation deliverable produced under this contract will be accepted or rejected in writing by the Government. Unless otherwise specified in the task order, the Government will have up to ten (10) working days to review the deliverable and provide comments. During this review period, the Government will have the right to reject or require correction of any deficiencies found in the deliverable that are contrary to the information contained in the Contractor's accepted proposal. After receiving the comments, the Contractor shall incorporate the changes into the deliverable and resubmit the final deliverable to the Government for approval. After final submission, the Government will have ten (10) working days to approve the final submission.

If the Government fails to complete the review within ten (10) working days after receiving the deliverable, the deliverable will become acceptable on an interim basis. If deficiencies are discovered after this period, the Government will provide in writing a description of all discrepancies to be corrected by the Contractor. After receiving the description of the discrepancies, the Contractor shall incorporate the changes into the deliverable and resubmit the deliverable to the Government. If the Government fails to respond within ten (10) working days of the final submission, the submission will be considered accepted.
