Washita Battlefield National Historic Site

August 2007

CENTENNIAL INITIATIVE

Site: WABA

Year: 2007

Vision Statement

Washita Battlefield National Historic Site interprets events of November 27, 1868, as a nationally significant element of frontier and military history and as a symbol of the plains tribes struggle to maintain traditional life styles; protects and conserves the topographic features, artifacts, remains and visual scene of the historic battlefield, and regularly involves tribes in consultation and training through management plan revisions and provide opportunities to be involved in the planning process and education programs for the site.
