Issue Date: 15 March 2005

CASE NOS.: 2004-CAA-4
2004-CAA-10
2005-CAA-6

IN THE MATTER OF

CATHERINE A. FOX, Complainant

v.

U.S. ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY, Respondent

ORDER DENYING MOTIONS FOR RECONSIDERATION

By Decision and Order dated March 1, 2005, U.S. Army and EPA Office of Inspector General were dismissed as Respondents in these cases, but other relief sought by the motions was denied. Both remaining parties now seek reconsideration of that Decision and Order; however, I find no compelling reasons to either grant their motions nor to conduct a further pre-trial evidentiary hearing concerning the motions. Consequently, the motions are DENIED. However, as expressed to the parties in a telephonic conference on March 14, 2005, should either or both of the remaining parties wish to seek an appeal of my March 1, 2005, Decision and Order at this time, I will not unreasonably withhold a stay of the upcoming trial proceedings.

So ORDERED this 15<sup>h</sup> day of March, 2005.
