

(2) The individual requires vocational services to prepare for, secure, retain, or regain employment; and

(3) The determination of eligibility is consistent with section 102(a) of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (Act), 29 U.S.C. 701-7961.

(b) The recipient of the grant under which the services are provided may determine an individual's eligibility for services under this program, to the extent that the determination is appropriate and consistent with the requirements of section 102(a) of the Act. See Appendix B to this part for further information.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, an individual who has a disability or is blind, as determined pursuant to title II or title XVI of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 401-433 and 1381-1385)—

(1) Is considered to be an individual with a significant disability; and

(2) Is presumed to be eligible for vocational rehabilitation (VR) services under this program (provided that the individual intends to achieve an employment outcome consistent with the unique strengths, resources, priorities, concerns, abilities, capabilities, interests, and informed choice of the individual).

(d) The DSU or recipient of the grant involved may deny an individual services if the DSU or recipient of the grant involved can demonstrate, by clear and convincing evidence, that the individual is incapable of benefiting in terms of an employment outcome from VR services due to the significance of the disability of the individual.

§ 379.5 What definitions apply?

(a) The following terms used in this part are defined in 34 CFR part 361:

- Act
- Community rehabilitation program
- Designated State unit
- Individual who is blind
- Individual with a disability
- Individual with a significant disability
- Physical or mental impairment
- Substantial impediment to employment

(b) The following definitions also apply to this part:

(1) Career advancement services mean services that develop specific job skills beyond those required by the position currently held by an individual with a disability to assist the individual to compete for a promotion or achieve an advanced position.

(2) Competitive employment, as the placement outcome under this program, means work—

(i) In the competitive labor market that is performed on a full-time or part-time basis in an integrated setting; and

(ii) For which an individual is compensated at or above the minimum wage, but not less than the customary or usual wage and terms and benefits provided by the employer for the same or similar work performed by individuals who are not disabled.

(3) Integrated setting, as part of the definition of “competitive employment,” means a setting typically found in the community in which individuals
