

Spicebush Nature Trail - is accessed from the Chestnut Picnic Area off of Park Central Road. There are bathrooms, picnic tables, grills and two swing sets. This is a great place to bring the whole family for an afternoon picnic.

To the north of the picnic area lays the trailhead for the Spicebush Nature Trail. This short, easy trail is paved and handicap accessible. Along the trail are interpretive signs that explore forest ecology.

This trail combines great opportunities to learn about the forest and is a place of natural beauty for family gatherings and interactions. This location is ideal for strollers and small children.
