Kenneth H. Cohn, 46, of 2046 Cheshire Rd., Binghamton, NY 13903 was arrested on February 27, 2004 pursuant to a federal indictment handed up by the grand jury on February 26, 2004. The federal indictment charges Mr. Cohn with 18 counts of failure to properly account for and pay over federal withholding taxes for the employees of his businesses, Binghamton Dispatch Company, Inc. and KC Transport Inc.¹ The indictment alleges that between September of 1998 and December of 2000, Kenneth Cohn collected withholding taxes from his employees of Binghamton Dispatch Company, Inc. and KC Transport, Inc. The indictment further alleges that Cohn failed to pay over these withholding taxes to the Internal Revenue Service as required by law.

¹ The indictment is only an accusation and defendant is presumed innocent until proven guilty.

If convicted, Cohn faces a maximum penalty of 5 years imprisonment and a $250,000 fine on each count of the indictment.

The case was investigated by the Internal Revenue Service Criminal Investigation and is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Miroslav Lovric.
