

Performers at Homestead Days June 13-15, 2008

The schedule of performances will be announced later.

The Many Moccasins Dance Troupe performs many Native America dance styles through an elaborate and visual setting. The dancers showcase their beautiful regalia, precise foot steps and wonderful culture. It is an educational experience with a visual impact. Audiences of all ages will enjoy this experience as dances share and interpret Native American Dancing. For more learn more about The Many Moccasins Dance Troupe go to <http://manymoccasins.com/>

Dances of Spain led by Maya Gracia will perform many different types of Spanish Dances. Spanish Dances, especially Flamenco are some of the most passionate, exciting, and powerful dance forms in the world. Spanish Dances incorporate unique Latin rhythms, complex foot patterns and fluid body movements. They require focus, dedication, practice and strength. Maya Gracia founded dance troupe Ále Flamenco

Northern Arizona, where she was artistic director, choreographer and premier dancer. Maya has an extensive dance background in Ballet, Classical Spanish, Middle Eastern, Flamenco and has studied with Masters from England, the Middle East, Spain and Japan (with specialized training by famed Spanish Dance legend, Matilde Coral). For more information go to <http://www.maya-gracia.com/>

The mission of the Lincoln Irish Dancers is “to heighten awareness and appreciation of traditional Irish dance, and to celebrate Irish culture.” The group became a non-profit organization in March of 1997. Lincoln Irish Dancers perform locally and regionally several times each year, sponsor a public ceili, dance classes and workshops, and hold a recital. They will perform ceili (KAY-lee), step dancing, set dancing and sean nos (literally, "old style") Irish dancing. All represent styles of traditional Irish dancing. Lincoln Irish Dancers comprise people of all ages and backgrounds. They were honored as the 2005 winner of the Lincoln Mayor's Arts Award for Cultural Celebration, presented by the Lincoln Arts Council. For more information go to <http://irishdance.inetnebr.com/index.htm>