

Martin G. Byrne

Marty Byrne is a Managing Director in the Office of General Counsel of Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. He oversees the legal aspects of the investment advisory, investment company, alternative investments, and other investment management activities of Merrill Lynch's Global Private Client business unit. His responsibilities focus on investment company, investment adviser and broker-dealer regulatory matters with respect to the provision of investment advisory products and services.

Prior to joining Merrill Lynch in 2000, Mr. Byrne was a partner in the investment management practice of the law firm of Kirkpatrick & Lockhart Preston Gates Ellis LLP. He is a graduate of American University's Washington College of Law and Washington and Jefferson College.